Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 12 – FSc Pre-Medical

Subject: English

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Advanced Reading Comprehension

Unit 2: Grammar: Sentence Structure

Unit 3: Essay Writing

Unit 4: Letter and Application Writing

Unit 5: Dialogue Writing

Unit 6: Translation: Urdu to English

Unit 7: Idioms and Phrasal Verbs

Unit 8: Articles and Prepositions

Unit 9: Paragraph Writing

Unit 10: Summarizing Skills

DM

Unit 1: Advanced Reading Comprehension

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain critical reading in the context of Advanced Reading Comprehension.
• Differentiate between author's purpose and tone with suitable examples.
• Solve conceptual problems related to inference accurately.
• Apply the ideas of Advanced Reading Comprehension to everyday situations involving evaluation.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of critical reading.
• Important properties, types and examples of author's purpose.
• Relationship between tone and inference.
• Practical applications of Advanced Reading Comprehension, especially evaluation.
• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Advanced Reading Comprehension.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Advanced Reading Comprehension with a daily-life example.
2. Explain critical reading on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss author's purpose and tone using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on inference.
5. Solve an exercise question on evaluation together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Advanced Reading Comprehension.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare author's purpose with tone.
• Board activity: solve a question on inference in pairs.
• Quick quiz on the key terms of Advanced Reading Comprehension.

Assessment Questions

1. Define critical reading.
2. Differentiate between author's purpose and tone.
3. Explain with an example: inference.
4. Write a short note on evaluation.

Homework

• Read Advanced Reading Comprehension from the book and solve the exercise questions.
• Prepare short notes on critical reading and author's purpose.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 2: Grammar: Sentence Structure

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain simple sentences in the context of Grammar: Sentence Structure.

• Differentiate between compound sentences and complex sentences with suitable examples.

• Solve conceptual problems related to clauses accurately.

• Apply the ideas of Grammar: Sentence Structure to everyday situations involving sentence combining.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of simple sentences.

• Important properties, types and examples of compound sentences.

• Relationship between complex sentences and clauses.

• Practical applications of Grammar: Sentence Structure, especially sentence combining.

• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Grammar: Sentence Structure.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Grammar: Sentence Structure with a daily-life example.
2. Explain simple sentences on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss compound sentences and complex sentences using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on clauses.
5. Solve an exercise question on sentence combining together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Grammar: Sentence Structure.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare compound sentences with complex sentences.

• Board activity: solve a question on clauses in pairs.

• Quick quiz on the key terms of Grammar: Sentence Structure.

Assessment Questions

1. Define simple sentences.
2. Differentiate between compound sentences and complex sentences.
3. Explain with an example: clauses.
4. Write a short note on sentence combining.

Homework

• Read Grammar: Sentence Structure from the book and solve the exercise questions.

• Prepare short notes on simple sentences and compound sentences.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 3: Essay Writing

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain essay types in the context of Essay Writing.
• Differentiate between outline and introduction with suitable examples.
• Solve conceptual problems related to body paragraphs accurately.
• Apply the ideas of Essay Writing to everyday situations involving conclusion.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of essay types.
• Important properties, types and examples of outline.
• Relationship between introduction and body paragraphs.
• Practical applications of Essay Writing, especially conclusion.
• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Essay Writing.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Essay Writing with a daily-life example.
2. Explain essay types on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss outline and introduction using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on body paragraphs.
5. Solve an exercise question on conclusion together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Essay Writing.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare outline with introduction.
• Board activity: solve a question on body paragraphs in pairs.
• Quick quiz on the key terms of Essay Writing.

Assessment Questions

1. Define essay types.
2. Differentiate between outline and introduction.
3. Explain with an example: body paragraphs.
4. Write a short note on conclusion.

Homework

• Read Essay Writing from the book and solve the exercise questions.
• Prepare short notes on essay types and outline.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 4: Letter and Application Writing

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain official letters in the context of Letter and Application Writing.
• Differentiate between job applications and complaint letters with suitable examples.
• Solve conceptual problems related to format accurately.
• Apply the ideas of Letter and Application Writing to everyday situations involving practice.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of official letters.
• Important properties, types and examples of job applications.
• Relationship between complaint letters and format.
• Practical applications of Letter and Application Writing, especially practice.
• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Letter and Application Writing.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Letter and Application Writing with a daily-life example.
2. Explain official letters on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss job applications and complaint letters using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on format.
5. Solve an exercise question on practice together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Letter and Application Writing.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare job applications with complaint letters.
• Board activity: solve a question on format in pairs.
• Quick quiz on the key terms of Letter and Application Writing.

Assessment Questions

1. Define official letters.
2. Differentiate between job applications and complaint letters.
3. Explain with an example: format.
4. Write a short note on practice.

Homework

• Read Letter and Application Writing from the book and solve the exercise questions.
• Prepare short notes on official letters and job applications.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 5: Dialogue Writing

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain conversation structure in the context of Dialogue Writing.
• Differentiate between natural speech and punctuation with suitable examples.
• Solve conceptual problems related to situations accurately.
• Apply the ideas of Dialogue Writing to everyday situations involving practice.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of conversation structure.
• Important properties, types and examples of natural speech.
• Relationship between punctuation and situations.
• Practical applications of Dialogue Writing, especially practice.
• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Dialogue Writing.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Dialogue Writing with a daily-life example.
2. Explain conversation structure on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss natural speech and punctuation using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on situations.
5. Solve an exercise question on practice together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Dialogue Writing.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare natural speech with punctuation.
• Board activity: solve a question on situations in pairs.
• Quick quiz on the key terms of Dialogue Writing.

Assessment Questions

1. Define conversation structure.
2. Differentiate between natural speech and punctuation.
3. Explain with an example: situations.
4. Write a short note on practice.

Homework

• Read Dialogue Writing from the book and solve the exercise questions.
• Prepare short notes on conversation structure and natural speech.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 6: Translation: Urdu to English

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain translation techniques in the context of Translation: Urdu to English.
• Differentiate between tense usage and idiomatic expressions with suitable examples.
• Solve conceptual problems related to practice passages accurately.
• Apply the ideas of Translation: Urdu to English to everyday situations involving common errors.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of translation techniques.
• Important properties, types and examples of tense usage.
• Relationship between idiomatic expressions and practice passages.
• Practical applications of Translation: Urdu to English, especially common errors.
• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Translation: Urdu to English.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Translation: Urdu to English with a daily-life example.
2. Explain translation techniques on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss tense usage and idiomatic expressions using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on practice passages.
5. Solve an exercise question on common errors together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Translation: Urdu to English.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare tense usage with idiomatic expressions.
• Board activity: solve a question on practice passages in pairs.
• Quick quiz on the key terms of Translation: Urdu to English.

Assessment Questions

1. Define translation techniques.
2. Differentiate between tense usage and idiomatic expressions.
3. Explain with an example: practice passages.
4. Write a short note on common errors.

Homework

• Read Translation: Urdu to English from the book and solve the exercise questions.
• Prepare short notes on translation techniques and tense usage.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 7: Idioms and Phrasal Verbs

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain common idioms in the context of Idioms and Phrasal Verbs.
• Differentiate between phrasal verbs and meanings with suitable examples.
• Solve conceptual problems related to sentence usage accurately.
• Apply the ideas of Idioms and Phrasal Verbs to everyday situations involving practice.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of common idioms.
• Important properties, types and examples of phrasal verbs.
• Relationship between meanings and sentence usage.
• Practical applications of Idioms and Phrasal Verbs, especially practice.
• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Idioms and Phrasal Verbs.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Idioms and Phrasal Verbs with a daily-life example.
2. Explain common idioms on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss phrasal verbs and meanings using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on sentence usage.
5. Solve an exercise question on practice together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Idioms and Phrasal Verbs.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare phrasal verbs with meanings.
• Board activity: solve a question on sentence usage in pairs.
• Quick quiz on the key terms of Idioms and Phrasal Verbs.

Assessment Questions

1. Define common idioms.
2. Differentiate between phrasal verbs and meanings.
3. Explain with an example: sentence usage.
4. Write a short note on practice.

Homework

• Read Idioms and Phrasal Verbs from the book and solve the exercise questions.
• Prepare short notes on common idioms and phrasal verbs.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 8: Articles and Prepositions

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain definite article in the context of Articles and Prepositions.
• Differentiate between indefinite article and prepositions of place with suitable examples.
• Solve conceptual problems related to prepositions of time accurately.
• Apply the ideas of Articles and Prepositions to everyday situations involving common errors.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of definite article.
• Important properties, types and examples of indefinite article.
• Relationship between prepositions of place and prepositions of time.
• Practical applications of Articles and Prepositions, especially common errors.
• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Articles and Prepositions.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Articles and Prepositions with a daily-life example.
2. Explain definite article on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss indefinite article and prepositions of place using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on prepositions of time.
5. Solve an exercise question on common errors together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Articles and Prepositions.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare indefinite article with prepositions of place.
• Board activity: solve a question on prepositions of time in pairs.
• Quick quiz on the key terms of Articles and Prepositions.

Assessment Questions

1. Define definite article.
2. Differentiate between indefinite article and prepositions of place.
3. Explain with an example: prepositions of time.
4. Write a short note on common errors.

Homework

• Read Articles and Prepositions from the book and solve the exercise questions.
• Prepare short notes on definite article and indefinite article.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 9: Paragraph Writing

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain topic sentence in the context of Paragraph Writing.

• Differentiate between supporting details and unity with suitable examples.

• Solve conceptual problems related to coherence accurately.

• Apply the ideas of Paragraph Writing to everyday situations involving practice topics.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of topic sentence.

• Important properties, types and examples of supporting details.

• Relationship between unity and coherence.

• Practical applications of Paragraph Writing, especially practice topics.

• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Paragraph Writing.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Paragraph Writing with a daily-life example.
2. Explain topic sentence on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss supporting details and unity using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on coherence.
5. Solve an exercise question on practice topics together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Paragraph Writing.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare supporting details with unity.

• Board activity: solve a question on coherence in pairs.

• Quick quiz on the key terms of Paragraph Writing.

Assessment Questions

1. Define topic sentence.
2. Differentiate between supporting details and unity.
3. Explain with an example: coherence.
4. Write a short note on practice topics.

Homework

• Read Paragraph Writing from the book and solve the exercise questions.

• Prepare short notes on topic sentence and supporting details.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 10: Summarizing Skills

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain main ideas in the context of Summarizing Skills.

• Differentiate between paraphrasing and conciseness with suitable examples.

• Solve conceptual problems related to titles accurately.

• Apply the ideas of Summarizing Skills to everyday situations involving practice passages.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of main ideas.

• Important properties, types and examples of paraphrasing.

• Relationship between conciseness and titles.

• Practical applications of Summarizing Skills, especially practice passages.

• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Summarizing Skills.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Summarizing Skills with a daily-life example.
2. Explain main ideas on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss paraphrasing and conciseness using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on titles.
5. Solve an exercise question on practice passages together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Summarizing Skills.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare paraphrasing with conciseness.

• Board activity: solve a question on titles in pairs.

• Quick quiz on the key terms of Summarizing Skills.

Assessment Questions

1. Define main ideas.
2. Differentiate between paraphrasing and conciseness.
3. Explain with an example: titles.
4. Write a short note on practice passages.

Homework

• Read Summarizing Skills from the book and solve the exercise questions.

• Prepare short notes on main ideas and paraphrasing.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each