Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 11 – ICom

Subject: English

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Prose: The Dying Sun – Reading Comprehension

Unit 2: Prose: Using Energy Wisely – Main Ideas

Unit 3: Prose: My Financial Career – Humour and Tone

Unit 4: Prose: Hunger and Population Explosion – Argument

Unit 5: Poetry: The Character of a Happy Life – Theme

Unit 6: Poetry: The Seven Ages of Man – Imagery

Unit 7: Grammar: Tenses – Present, Past and Future

Unit 8: Composition: Formal Letters and Applications

DM

Unit 1: Prose: The Dying Sun – Reading Comprehension

Learning Objectives

• Read the prose lesson with correct pronunciation and fluency.

• Identify the central theme and supporting details of the lesson.

• Use new vocabulary from the lesson in original sentences.

Key Concepts

• Theme: change and the fading of old customs in society.

• The author's reflective and descriptive writing style.

• Key vocabulary: decline, heritage, reluctant, cherish.

• Structure: introduction, illustration through examples, reflective conclusion.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Prose: The Dying Sun – Reading Comprehension to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Prose: The Dying Sun – Reading Comprehension with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Prose: The Dying Sun – Reading Comprehension.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Prose: The Dying Sun – Reading Comprehension and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Prose: The Dying Sun – Reading Comprehension for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What is the central theme of 'The Dying Sun'?

2. Explain the author's attitude towards changing traditions.

3. Use any five new words from the lesson in sentences of your own.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Prose: The Dying Sun – Reading Comprehension in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 2: Prose: Using Energy Wisely – Main Ideas

Learning Objectives

• Extract the main ideas from an expository prose passage.

• Distinguish between facts and the author's opinions.

• Summarise a paragraph in one or two sentences.

Key Concepts

• Expository writing: informing through facts and logic.

• Energy conservation as a civic responsibility.

• Linking words that show cause and effect.

• Techniques of summarising without copying sentences.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Prose: Using Energy Wisely – Main Ideas to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Prose: Using Energy Wisely – Main Ideas with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Prose: Using Energy Wisely – Main Ideas.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Prose: Using Energy Wisely – Main Ideas and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Prose: Using Energy Wisely – Main Ideas for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. State three main ideas of the lesson in your own words.

2. Why does the author consider energy conservation a duty?

3. Summarise the second paragraph of the lesson.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Prose: Using Energy Wisely – Main Ideas in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 3: Prose: My Financial Career – Humour and Tone

Learning Objectives

• Recognise humour created through exaggeration and irony.

• Describe the narrator's character from his actions.

• Identify the tone of a comic narrative.

Key Concepts

• Humour of situation: a nervous man in a bank.

• First-person narration and its comic effect.

• Exaggeration as a humour device.

• Theme: confidence matters as much as knowledge.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Prose: My Financial Career – Humour and Tone to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Prose: My Financial Career – Humour and Tone with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Prose: My Financial Career – Humour and Tone.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Prose: My Financial Career – Humour and Tone and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Prose: My Financial Career – Humour and Tone for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. How does the narrator create humour in the bank scene?

2. Describe the character of the narrator in your own words.

3. What lesson does the story teach about self-confidence?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Prose: My Financial Career – Humour and Tone in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 4: Prose: Hunger and Population Explosion – Argument

Learning Objectives

• Follow the logical argument of a persuasive passage.

• Identify evidence the writer gives for his claims.

• Express agreement or disagreement with reasons.

Key Concepts

• Persuasive writing: claim, evidence and conclusion.

• Population growth and its pressure on food resources.

• Use of statistics and examples as evidence.

• Paragraph unity: one main idea per paragraph.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Prose: Hunger and Population Explosion – Argument to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Prose: Hunger and Population Explosion – Argument with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Prose: Hunger and Population Explosion – Argument.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Prose: Hunger and Population Explosion – Argument and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Prose: Hunger and Population Explosion – Argument for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What problem does the writer discuss and what solution does he suggest?

2. Give two pieces of evidence the writer uses.

3. Do you agree with the writer? Give two reasons.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Prose: Hunger and Population Explosion – Argument in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 5: Poetry: The Character of a Happy Life – Theme

Learning Objectives

• Read the poem with proper rhythm and expression.

• Explain the poet's idea of a happy life in simple words.

• Identify qualities the poet admires in a person.

Key Concepts

• Theme: true happiness lies in honesty and contentment.

• The quatrain stanza form used in the poem.

• Contrast between the happy man and the ambitious man.

• Moral tone of seventeenth-century lyric poetry.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Poetry: The Character of a Happy Life – Theme to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Poetry: The Character of a Happy Life – Theme with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Poetry: The Character of a Happy Life – Theme.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Poetry: The Character of a Happy Life – Theme and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Poetry: The Character of a Happy Life – Theme for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What qualities make a man happy according to the poet?

2. Contrast the happy man with the ambitious man.

3. Explain any one stanza of the poem in your own words.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Poetry: The Character of a Happy Life – Theme in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 6: Poetry: The Seven Ages of Man – Imagery

Learning Objectives

• Explain the extended metaphor of life as a stage play.

• Describe any two ages of man in your own words.

• Identify imagery and comparison in the poem.

Key Concepts

• Extended metaphor: the world as a stage, life as a play.

• The seven stages from infancy to old age.

• Vivid imagery: the mewling infant, the whining schoolboy.

• A great playwright's view of human life as brief and patterned.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Poetry: The Seven Ages of Man – Imagery to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Poetry: The Seven Ages of Man – Imagery with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Poetry: The Seven Ages of Man – Imagery.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Poetry: The Seven Ages of Man – Imagery and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Poetry: The Seven Ages of Man – Imagery for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Explain the metaphor of the world as a stage.

2. Describe the schoolboy and the soldier stages.

3. What is the tone of the last two lines of the poem?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Poetry: The Seven Ages of Man – Imagery in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 7: Grammar: Tenses – Present, Past and Future

Learning Objectives

• Identify the tense of a verb in a sentence.

• Use present, past and future tenses correctly in writing.

• Convert sentences from one tense to another.

Key Concepts

• Three main tenses and their four forms each.

• Time markers: yesterday, now, tomorrow, since, for.

• Difference between simple and continuous forms.

• Common errors of Pakistani learners in tense use.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Grammar: Tenses – Present, Past and Future to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Grammar: Tenses – Present, Past and Future with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Grammar: Tenses – Present, Past and Future.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Grammar: Tenses – Present, Past and Future and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Grammar: Tenses – Present, Past and Future for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Fill in the blanks with the correct tense of the verb.

2. Rewrite the paragraph changing past tense into present tense.

3. Correct the tense errors in the given sentences.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Grammar: Tenses – Present, Past and Future in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 8: Composition: Formal Letters and Applications

Learning Objectives

• Write a formal letter in the correct format.

• Draft an application for leave, fee concession or a job.

• Use polite and precise language in formal writing.

Key Concepts

• Parts of a formal letter: address, date, salutation, body, closing.

• Difference between personal and formal letters.

• Structure of an application: subject, request, reason.

• Polite expressions and appropriate vocabulary.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Composition: Formal Letters and Applications to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Composition: Formal Letters and Applications with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Composition: Formal Letters and Applications.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Composition: Formal Letters and Applications and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Composition: Formal Letters and Applications for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Write an application to the principal for three days' leave.

2. Write a letter to the editor about rising prices.

3. Point out format errors in the given letter.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Composition: Formal Letters and Applications in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)