Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 11 – ICom

Subject: Islamiat

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: The Holy Quran: Introduction and Revelation

Unit 2: Selected Verses: Translation and Explanation

Unit 3: Hadith: Importance and Compilation

Unit 4: Belief in Tauheed (Oneness of Allah)

Unit 5: Belief in Prophethood (Risalat)

Unit 6: Belief in the Day of Judgment

Unit 7: Worship: Salah (Prayer)

Unit 8: Worship: Zakat and Sawm

DM

Unit 1: The Holy Quran: Introduction and Revelation

Learning Objectives

• Explain the meaning and importance of divine revelation.

• Describe how the Quran was revealed to the Holy Prophet (PBUH).

• State the unique features of the Quran as the final divine book.

Key Concepts

• Wahi: Allah's communication with His messengers.

• First revelation in the cave of Hira; 23 years of revelation.

• The Quran as guidance for all mankind until the Day of Judgment.

• Preservation of the Quran: memorisation and written compilation.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about The Holy Quran: Introduction and Revelation to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of The Holy Quran: Introduction and Revelation with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying The Holy Quran: Introduction and Revelation.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of The Holy Quran: Introduction and Revelation and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on The Holy Quran: Introduction and Revelation for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What is meant by Wahi? Describe the first revelation.

2. State three unique features of the Holy Quran.

3. How was the Quran preserved in the time of the Prophet (PBUH)?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of The Holy Quran: Introduction and Revelation in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 2: Selected Verses: Translation and Explanation

Learning Objectives

• Read selected Quranic verses with correct translation.

• Explain the message of the verses in simple words.

• Apply the teachings of the verses to daily life.

Key Concepts

• Verse on the oneness of Allah (Surah Al-Ikhlas).

• Verses on kindness to parents and the needy.

• The Quran's guidance on honesty in dealings.

• Reflection: how these teachings shape character.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Selected Verses: Translation and Explanation to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Selected Verses: Translation and Explanation with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Selected Verses: Translation and Explanation.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Selected Verses: Translation and Explanation and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Selected Verses: Translation and Explanation for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Translate Surah Al-Ikhlas and explain its message.

2. What do the verses teach about treatment of parents?

3. Write a note on honesty in trade in the light of the Quran.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Selected Verses: Translation and Explanation in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 3: Hadith: Importance and Compilation

Learning Objectives

• Define Hadith and explain its authority in Islam.

• Describe how Hadith was preserved and compiled.

• Name the six authentic books of Hadith.

Key Concepts

• Hadith: sayings, actions and approvals of the Prophet (PBUH).

• The Quran and Sunnah as the two sources of Islamic law.

• Companions' care in memorising and writing Hadith.

• Sihah Sittah: the six canonical collections.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Hadith: Importance and Compilation to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Hadith: Importance and Compilation with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Hadith: Importance and Compilation.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Hadith: Importance and Compilation and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Hadith: Importance and Compilation for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Define Hadith and explain its importance with an example.

2. How was Hadith preserved during the Prophet's (PBUH) lifetime?

3. Name the Sihah Sittah books.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Hadith: Importance and Compilation in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 4: Belief in Tauheed (Oneness of Allah)

Learning Objectives

• Explain the concept of Tauheed with Quranic evidence.

• Describe the effects of Tauheed on a believer's life.

• Refute the concept of partners with Allah.

Key Concepts

• Tauheed: Allah is One, without partner in His essence and attributes.

• Quranic arguments: the order of the universe proves one Creator.

• Effects: freedom from fear, dignity, and moral courage.

• Shirk as the greatest sin in Islam.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Belief in Tauheed (Oneness of Allah) to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Belief in Tauheed (Oneness of Allah) with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Belief in Tauheed (Oneness of Allah).

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Belief in Tauheed (Oneness of Allah) and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Belief in Tauheed (Oneness of Allah) for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Explain Tauheed with two Quranic arguments.

2. What are the effects of belief in Tauheed on human life?

3. Why is Shirk called the greatest sin?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Belief in Tauheed (Oneness of Allah) in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 5: Belief in Prophethood (Risalat)

Learning Objectives

• Explain the need for prophets in human guidance.

• Describe the finality of the Prophethood of Muhammad (PBUH).

• State the qualities of prophets.

Key Concepts

• Prophets as teachers sent by Allah in every age.

• Khatm-e-Nabuwwat: Muhammad (PBUH) is the last prophet.

• Qualities: truthfulness, trustworthiness, wisdom, infallibility.

• Obedience to the Prophet (PBUH) as obedience to Allah.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Belief in Prophethood (Risalat) to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Belief in Prophethood (Risalat) with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Belief in Prophethood (Risalat).

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Belief in Prophethood (Risalat) and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Belief in Prophethood (Risalat) for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Why did Allah send prophets? Explain.

2. What is meant by the finality of Prophethood?

3. State four qualities of the prophets.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Belief in Prophethood (Risalat) in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 6: Belief in the Day of Judgment

Learning Objectives

• Explain the Islamic concept of the Hereafter.

• Describe the events of the Day of Judgment briefly.

• Explain how this belief motivates good conduct.

Key Concepts

• Akhirah: life after death and eternal accountability.

• Resurrection, the scale of deeds, Paradise and Hell.

• Justice: every soul will be rewarded for its deeds.

• Moral effect: self-control and responsibility in daily life.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Belief in the Day of Judgment to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Belief in the Day of Judgment with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Belief in the Day of Judgment.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Belief in the Day of Judgment and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Belief in the Day of Judgment for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Explain the belief in the Day of Judgment.

2. Describe what will happen on the Day of Judgment.

3. How does belief in Akhirah improve a person's character?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Belief in the Day of Judgment in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 7: Worship: Salah (Prayer)

Learning Objectives

• Explain the importance of Salah in Islam.

• Describe the method of offering Salah briefly.

• State the spiritual and social benefits of Salah.

Key Concepts

• Salah: the second pillar of Islam, five times daily.

• Conditions: purity, proper time, facing the Qibla.

• Spiritual benefits: closeness to Allah and peace of heart.

• Social benefits: unity, discipline and equality of believers.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Worship: Salah (Prayer) to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Worship: Salah (Prayer) with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Worship: Salah (Prayer).

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Worship: Salah (Prayer) and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Worship: Salah (Prayer) for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Why is Salah called the pillar of religion?

2. State the conditions necessary for Salah.

3. Describe the spiritual and social benefits of congregational prayer.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Worship: Salah (Prayer) in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 8: Worship: Zakat and Sawm

Learning Objectives

• Explain the rules of Zakat and its rate.

• Describe the objectives of fasting in Ramadan.

• Explain the social wisdom behind Zakat and Sawm.

Key Concepts

• Zakat: 2.5% on qualifying wealth; purification of wealth.

• Recipients of Zakat: the poor, needy, debtors and others.

• Sawm: fasting from dawn to sunset in Ramadan.

• Benefits: sympathy for the poor, self-discipline, gratitude.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Worship: Zakat and Sawm to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Worship: Zakat and Sawm with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Worship: Zakat and Sawm.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Worship: Zakat and Sawm and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Worship: Zakat and Sawm for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What is Zakat? Who is entitled to receive it?

2. Explain the spiritual objectives of fasting.

3. How do Zakat and fasting promote social welfare?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Worship: Zakat and Sawm in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)