Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 12 – ICom

Subject: English

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Prose: The Reward – Moral Theme

Unit 2: Prose: Using the Scientific Method – Exposition

Unit 3: Prose: On Destroying Books – Persuasive Writing

Unit 4: Prose: The Hero – Character Study

Unit 5: Poetry: Lines from an Essay on Man – Philosophy

Unit 6: Poetry: The Hollow Men – Modern Imagery

Unit 7: Grammar: Direct and Indirect Speech

Unit 8: Composition: Essay Writing

DM

Unit 1: Prose: The Reward – Moral Theme

Learning Objectives

• Read the story and trace the development of its plot.

• Explain the moral message of the story in your own words.

• Discuss how the characters' choices shape the ending.

Key Concepts

• Theme: honesty and hard work are always rewarded.

• Plot structure: exposition, conflict, climax, resolution.

• Character contrast: the honest worker and the cheat.

• Narrative moral: short cuts lead to loss.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Prose: The Reward – Moral Theme to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Prose: The Reward – Moral Theme with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Prose: The Reward – Moral Theme.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Prose: The Reward – Moral Theme and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Prose: The Reward – Moral Theme for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What is the moral of the story 'The Reward'?

2. How does the ending punish dishonesty and reward honesty?

3. Describe the main character's qualities with examples.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Prose: The Reward – Moral Theme in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 2: Prose: Using the Scientific Method – Exposition

Learning Objectives

• List the steps of the scientific method in order.

• Apply the steps to a simple everyday problem.

• Distinguish observation from conclusion.

Key Concepts

• Steps: observation, hypothesis, experiment, conclusion.

• Importance of controlled experiments.

• Science as a habit of careful thinking.

• Examples from daily life: cooking, gardening, repairs.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Prose: Using the Scientific Method – Exposition to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Prose: Using the Scientific Method – Exposition with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Prose: Using the Scientific Method – Exposition.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Prose: Using the Scientific Method – Exposition and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Prose: Using the Scientific Method – Exposition for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Write the five steps of the scientific method.

2. Apply the scientific method to find why a plant is wilting.

3. What is the difference between a hypothesis and a conclusion?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Prose: Using the Scientific Method – Exposition in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 3: Prose: On Destroying Books – Persuasive Writing

Learning Objectives

• Identify the writer's main argument and supporting points.

• Recognise emotive language in persuasive prose.

• Write a short paragraph defending books.

Key Concepts

• Argument: books are the memory of civilisation.

• Emotive appeals: loss, heritage, ignorance.

• Rhetorical questions as a persuasive device.

• Structure: problem, consequences, appeal to the reader.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Prose: On Destroying Books – Persuasive Writing to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Prose: On Destroying Books – Persuasive Writing with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Prose: On Destroying Books – Persuasive Writing.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Prose: On Destroying Books – Persuasive Writing and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Prose: On Destroying Books – Persuasive Writing for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What is the writer's main argument?

2. Give two examples of emotive language from the lesson.

3. Write a paragraph: 'Why books must be protected'.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Prose: On Destroying Books – Persuasive Writing in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 4: Prose: The Hero – Character Study

Learning Objectives

• Analyse the hero's character through his actions.

• Explain the difference between real and false heroism.

• Discuss the story's surprise ending.

Key Concepts

• Theme: true courage is quiet and selfless.

• Irony in the villagers' idea of a hero.

• Character development through crisis.

• The twist ending and its effect on the reader.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Prose: The Hero – Character Study to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Prose: The Hero – Character Study with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Prose: The Hero – Character Study.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Prose: The Hero – Character Study and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Prose: The Hero – Character Study for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Who is the real hero of the story and why?

2. How does the ending change our view of the characters?

3. What is the difference between real and false courage?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Prose: The Hero – Character Study in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 5: Poetry: Lines from an Essay on Man – Philosophy

Learning Objectives

• Explain Pope's view of man's place in nature.

• Paraphrase two couplets in simple English.

• Identify the heroic couplet form.

Key Concepts

• Theme: man should know his limits and trust God's order.

• The heroic couplet: rhymed pairs in iambic pentameter.

• Famous lines: 'The proper study of mankind is man'.

• Enlightenment optimism about reason and order.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Poetry: Lines from an Essay on Man – Philosophy to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Poetry: Lines from an Essay on Man – Philosophy with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Poetry: Lines from an Essay on Man – Philosophy.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Poetry: Lines from an Essay on Man – Philosophy and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Poetry: Lines from an Essay on Man – Philosophy for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What does Pope say is the proper study of mankind?

2. Paraphrase any two couplets in your own words.

3. What is a heroic couplet? Give an example.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Poetry: Lines from an Essay on Man – Philosophy in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 6: Poetry: The Hollow Men – Modern Imagery

Learning Objectives

• Explain the image of the 'hollow men'.

• Describe the mood and tone of the poem.

• Identify repetition and its effect.

Key Concepts

• Symbol: hollow men as spiritually empty modern people.

• Bleak, hopeless mood of the post-war world.

• Repetition: 'This is the way the world ends'.

• Contrast between the hollow men and the remembered past.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Poetry: The Hollow Men – Modern Imagery to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Poetry: The Hollow Men – Modern Imagery with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Poetry: The Hollow Men – Modern Imagery.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Poetry: The Hollow Men – Modern Imagery and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Poetry: The Hollow Men – Modern Imagery for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Who are the 'hollow men' in the poem?

2. Describe the mood of the poem with two examples.

3. What effect does repetition create in the poem?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Poetry: The Hollow Men – Modern Imagery in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 7: Grammar: Direct and Indirect Speech

Learning Objectives

• Convert direct speech into indirect speech correctly.

• Apply the rules for tense, pronoun and time changes.

• Report questions, commands and exclamations.

Key Concepts

• Reporting verb and reported clause structure.

• Backshift of tenses in indirect speech.

• Changes in pronouns, time and place words.

• Special rules for questions, imperatives and exclamations.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Grammar: Direct and Indirect Speech to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Grammar: Direct and Indirect Speech with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Grammar: Direct and Indirect Speech.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Grammar: Direct and Indirect Speech and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Grammar: Direct and Indirect Speech for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Change the given sentences into indirect speech.

2. Report the dialogue between the teacher and the student.

3. Correct the errors in the reported speech passage.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Grammar: Direct and Indirect Speech in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 8: Composition: Essay Writing

Learning Objectives

• Plan an essay with introduction, body and conclusion.

• Write a coherent 300-word essay on a given topic.

• Use linking words to connect ideas smoothly.

Key Concepts

• Essay structure: thesis, supporting paragraphs, conclusion.

• Types: narrative, descriptive, argumentative essays.

• Outlining before writing saves time and improves order.

• Common essay topics: education, science, national issues.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Composition: Essay Writing to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Composition: Essay Writing with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Composition: Essay Writing.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Composition: Essay Writing and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Composition: Essay Writing for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Write an outline for the essay 'Science in Daily Life'.

2. Write a complete essay on 'My Aim in Life' (250-300 words).

3. Improve the weak introduction of the given essay.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Composition: Essay Writing in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)