Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 12 – ICom

Subject: Islamiat

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Seerah: The Makki Life of the Holy Prophet (PBUH)

Unit 2: Seerah: Hijrah and the Madani Life

Unit 3: The First Caliph

Unit 4: The Second Caliph and Administration

Unit 5: Jihad: Concept and Ethics

Unit 6: Islamic Economic System

Unit 7: Islamic Social System: The Family

Unit 8: Human Rights in Islam

DM

Unit 1: Seerah: The Makki Life of the Holy Prophet (PBUH)

Learning Objectives

• Describe the early life of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) in Makkah.

• Explain the beginning of prophethood and the first Muslims.

• State the difficulties faced by early Muslims.

Key Concepts

• Birth, upbringing and the title of Al-Amin.

• The first revelation and the call to Tauheed.

• Persecution of the early Muslims by the Quraish.

• Patience and steadfastness of the Prophet (PBUH).

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Seerah: The Makki Life of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Seerah: The Makki Life of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Seerah: The Makki Life of the Holy Prophet (PBUH).

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Seerah: The Makki Life of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Seerah: The Makki Life of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Describe the early life of the Prophet (PBUH) before prophethood.

2. How did the Quraish oppose the early Muslims?

3. What lessons do we learn from the Makki life?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Seerah: The Makki Life of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 2: Seerah: Hijrah and the Madani Life

Learning Objectives

• Explain the causes and importance of the Hijrah.

• Describe the establishment of the first Islamic state in Madinah.

• State the main events of the Madani period.

Key Concepts

• Hijrah: migration from Makkah to Madinah in 622 AD.

• Mawakhat: brotherhood between Muhajirin and Ansar.

• The Charter of Madinah: rights of all communities.

• Battles of Badr, Uhud and the conquest of Makkah.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Seerah: Hijrah and the Madani Life to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Seerah: Hijrah and the Madani Life with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Seerah: Hijrah and the Madani Life.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Seerah: Hijrah and the Madani Life and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Seerah: Hijrah and the Madani Life for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What were the causes of the Hijrah?

2. Describe the Charter of Madinah and its importance.

3. State three major events of the Madani life.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Seerah: Hijrah and the Madani Life in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 3: The First Caliph

Learning Objectives

• Describe the election of the first caliph.

• Explain his services to Islam after the Prophet (PBUH).

• State his qualities of leadership.

Key Concepts

• Election at Saqifa Bani Saida; the first caliph.

• Wars against apostasy (Ridda) and false prophets.

• Compilation of the Quran under his caliphate.

• Qualities: truthfulness, humility, firmness in faith.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about The First Caliph to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of The First Caliph with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying The First Caliph.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of The First Caliph and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on The First Caliph for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. How was the first caliph elected?

2. Describe his services against apostasy.

3. What were his qualities as a leader?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of The First Caliph in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 4: The Second Caliph and Administration

Learning Objectives

• Describe the expansion of the Islamic state under the second caliph.

• Explain his administrative reforms.

• State lessons from his justice and simplicity.

Key Concepts

• Vast conquests: Persia, Syria, Egypt and Jerusalem.

• Administrative system: provinces, courts, treasury (Bait-ul-Mal).

• Justice: equality of all citizens before law.

• Simplicity of life and accountability of rulers.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about The Second Caliph and Administration to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of The Second Caliph and Administration with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying The Second Caliph and Administration.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of The Second Caliph and Administration and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on The Second Caliph and Administration for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Describe the administrative reforms of the second caliph.

2. Give an example of his justice.

3. What can modern rulers learn from his life?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of The Second Caliph and Administration in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 5: Jihad: Concept and Ethics

Learning Objectives

• Explain the true meaning of Jihad in Islam.

• Distinguish Jihad from terrorism and aggression.

• State the ethics of war in Islam.

Key Concepts

• Jihad: struggle in the path of Allah, first against one's own self.

• Defensive nature of armed Jihad; no compulsion in religion.

• Ethics: no harm to non-combatants, women, children or nature.

• Jihad of knowledge, wealth and word.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Jihad: Concept and Ethics to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Jihad: Concept and Ethics with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Jihad: Concept and Ethics.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Jihad: Concept and Ethics and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Jihad: Concept and Ethics for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What is the true meaning of Jihad?

2. How is Jihad different from terrorism?

3. State four ethics of war in Islam.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Jihad: Concept and Ethics in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 6: Islamic Economic System

Learning Objectives

• Explain the Islamic concept of ownership of wealth.

• Describe the prohibition of interest (Riba).

• State the Islamic measures against hoarding and exploitation.

Key Concepts

• Allah is the real owner; man is a trustee of wealth.

• Prohibition of Riba and its wisdom.

• Zakat, Sadaqah and Waqf as tools of distribution.

• Fair trade: honest measure, no fraud or monopoly.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Islamic Economic System to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Islamic Economic System with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Islamic Economic System.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Islamic Economic System and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Islamic Economic System for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Explain the Islamic concept of ownership.

2. Why is interest prohibited in Islam?

3. How does Islam ensure fair distribution of wealth?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Islamic Economic System in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 7: Islamic Social System: The Family

Learning Objectives

• Explain the importance of family in Islam.

• Describe the rights of parents, spouses and children.

• State the Islamic teachings on neighbours and relatives.

Key Concepts

• Family as the foundation of society; Nikah as its base.

• Rights of parents: kindness, respect and service.

• Mutual rights of husband and wife.

• Kindness to neighbours, relatives and the weak.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Islamic Social System: The Family to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Islamic Social System: The Family with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Islamic Social System: The Family.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Islamic Social System: The Family and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Islamic Social System: The Family for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Why is family important in the Islamic social system?

2. State the rights of parents in Islam.

3. What are the mutual rights of husband and wife?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Islamic Social System: The Family in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 8: Human Rights in Islam

Learning Objectives

• Explain the Islamic concept of human dignity.

• State the rights granted by Islam 1400 years ago.

• Compare Islamic rights with modern declarations.

Key Concepts

• All humans are equal; no superiority except by piety.

• The Farewell Sermon as a charter of human rights.

• Rights: life, property, honour, justice, education.

• Protection of minorities and the weak in Islamic law.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Human Rights in Islam to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Human Rights in Islam with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Human Rights in Islam.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Human Rights in Islam and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Human Rights in Islam for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Explain the Farewell Sermon as a human rights charter.

2. State five human rights granted by Islam.

3. How does Islam protect the rights of minorities?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Human Rights in Islam in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)