Unit 1: Parts of Speech

Learning Objectives

• Identify the eight parts of speech.

• Classify nouns, pronouns, verbs and adjectives in sentences.

• Use adverbs, prepositions and conjunctions correctly.

• Construct sentences using all parts of speech.

Key Concepts

• Every word in a sentence belongs to a part of speech.

• Nouns name; pronouns replace nouns; verbs show action or state.

• Adjectives describe nouns; adverbs describe verbs, adjectives or other adverbs.

• Prepositions show relationships of place, time or direction.

• Conjunctions join words or sentences; interjections express sudden feeling.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Write a sentence on the board and colour-code each word by its part of speech.
2. Explain nouns, pronouns, verbs and adjectives with fresh examples.
3. Introduce adverbs, prepositions, conjunctions and interjections.
4. Students label parts of speech in five printed sentences.
5. Error-correction round: fix sentences with wrong parts of speech.

Classroom Activities

• Word-sort game: teams place word cards under part-of-speech headings.

• Write a ten-word story using at least one word from each part of speech.

Assessment Questions

1. Underline the adjectives and circle the adverbs in the given passage.
2. Fill in the blanks with suitable prepositions.
3. Identify the conjunctions in five sentences.

Homework

• Write eight sentences, each highlighting a different part of speech.

Time Allocation

Introduction 5 min, teaching 20 min, labelling practice 10 min, review 5 min.

Unit 2: Tenses: Present and Past

Learning Objectives

• Identify present simple, present continuous and present perfect.

• Identify past simple, past continuous and past perfect.

• Choose the correct tense for given time clues.

• Write a short paragraph using mixed tenses correctly.

Key Concepts

• Tense shows the time of an action.

• Present simple is used for habits and facts: 'She reads daily.'

• Present continuous is used for actions happening now.

• Past simple is used for completed past actions with time words like 'yesterday'.

• Signal words (always, now, yesterday, already) help choose the tense.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Act out three actions (habit, happening now, finished yesterday) and name the tenses.
2. Present the three present tenses with timeline diagrams.
3. Present the three past tenses with timeline diagrams.
4. Students pick the correct verb form in a multiple-choice drill.
5. Guided writing: describe 'My Yesterday' using past tenses.

Classroom Activities

• Timeline race: teams place sentence strips on the correct tense timeline.

• Mime game where the class guesses and names the tense of the action.

Assessment Questions

1. Fill in the blanks with the correct present tense form.
2. Rewrite the paragraph in the past tense.
3. Correct the tense errors in five sentences.

Homework

• Write a diary entry of your last Sunday using past tenses.

Time Allocation

Warm-up 5 min, teaching 20 min, drill 10 min, writing 5 min.

Unit 3: Reading Comprehension

Learning Objectives

• Read a passage with correct pronunciation and pace.

• Find the main idea and supporting details.

• Answer factual and inferential questions.

• Guess the meanings of new words from context.

Key Concepts

• Skimming gives the general idea; scanning finds specific facts.

• The main idea is often in the first or last sentence of a paragraph.

• Inferential questions ask what the writer suggests, not only what is stated.

• Context clues (surrounding words) help guess unknown words.

• A summary retells the passage briefly in the reader's own words.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Read the passage aloud with expression while students follow.
2. Students skim for the topic and scan for three facts.
3. Model answering one factual and one inferential question.
4. Teach guessing word meanings using context clues.
5. Students answer the set questions and write a two-line summary.

Classroom Activities

• Partner reading: one reads, the other asks a question about each paragraph.

• Vocabulary detective: find and explain five new words from the passage.

Assessment Questions

1. Answer five comprehension questions on the unseen passage.
2. Write the main idea of the passage in one sentence.
3. Give the meanings of three underlined words using context.

Homework

• Read the next passage and write five questions with answers.

Time Allocation

Reading 10 min, teaching strategies 10 min, practice 15 min, summary 5 min.

Unit 4: Letter Writing

Learning Objectives

• State the format of formal and informal letters.

• Write an application to the principal for leave.

• Write a letter to a friend describing an event.

• Use correct salutations, body and closing in letters.

Key Concepts

• A letter has the sender's address, date, salutation, body and closing.

• Formal letters use respectful language; informal letters are friendly.

• The body is written in clear paragraphs.

• Applications need a subject line and a polite request.

• Common closings: 'Yours sincerely', 'Yours obediently'.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Show a jumbled letter and ask students to arrange it in order.
2. Explain each part of a letter on a labelled model.
3. Draft a leave application together on the board.
4. Draft an informal letter to a friend together.
5. Students write their own letter following the model.

Classroom Activities

• Envelope addressing practice with a real envelope.

• Peer review: exchange letters and check the format with a checklist.

Assessment Questions

1. Write an application for two days' sick leave.
2. Point out four format errors in the given letter.
3. Write the correct salutation and closing for a letter to your teacher.

Homework

• Write a letter to your cousin inviting him to your birthday.

Time Allocation

Warm-up 5 min, teaching 20 min, guided writing 10 min, peer check 5 min.

Unit 5: Vocabulary Building

Learning Objectives

• Learn twenty new words with meanings and usage.

• Use prefixes and suffixes to form new words.

• Identify synonyms and antonyms.

• Use new words in original sentences.

Key Concepts

• A prefix goes before a root word (un-happy); a suffix goes after (kind-ness).

• Synonyms have similar meanings; antonyms have opposite meanings.

• Learning words in families (act, actor, action) builds memory.

• Using a word in a sentence fixes it in memory.

• A personal word bank helps revise vocabulary regularly.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Word of the day routine: pronounce, define, use in a sentence.
2. Teach five common prefixes and five common suffixes.
3. Play a synonym-antonym matching game on the board.
4. Students build word families from five root words.
5. Each student writes five sentences using the new words.

Classroom Activities

• Word ladder competition in teams.

• Maintain a personal vocabulary notebook with weekly entries.

Assessment Questions

1. Write synonyms and antonyms for ten given words.
2. Add a prefix or suffix to make new words from five roots.
3. Use five new words in sentences of your own.

Homework

• Learn the week's word list and write a short story using ten of them.

Time Allocation

Word routine 5 min, teaching 20 min, games 10 min, writing 5 min.

Unit 6: Direct and Indirect Speech

Learning Objectives

• Define direct and indirect speech.

• Change direct speech into indirect speech.

• Apply the rules of tense and pronoun change.

• Punctuate direct speech correctly.

Key Concepts

• Direct speech repeats the exact words in quotation marks.

• Indirect speech reports what was said without quotation marks.

• When reporting, the tense usually shifts one step back.

• Pronouns change according to the speaker: 'I' becomes 'he/she'.

• Time words change: 'today' becomes 'that day'.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Two students act a dialogue; the class reports what was said.
2. Write the rules of change in a clear table on the board.
3. Convert three direct sentences to indirect speech together.
4. Practise pronoun and time-word changes separately.
5. Students convert a short dialogue into reported speech.

Classroom Activities

• Telephone game: pass a message and report what was said.

• Convert cartoon speech bubbles into indirect speech.

Assessment Questions

1. Change into indirect speech: She said, 'I am reading a book.'
2. Change into indirect speech: He said, 'I will come tomorrow.'
3. Punctuate the given direct speech correctly.

Homework

• Convert ten direct sentences into indirect speech.

Time Allocation

Role play 5 min, teaching 20 min, practice 10 min, review 5 min.

Unit 7: Paragraph and Story Writing

Learning Objectives

• Write a unified paragraph with a topic sentence.

• Arrange ideas in logical order.

• Write a short moral story from an outline.

• Use linking words to connect sentences.

Key Concepts

• A paragraph has one main idea expressed in a topic sentence.

• Supporting sentences explain or give examples.

• A story needs a beginning, middle and end.

• Linking words (first, then, finally, because) connect ideas smoothly.

• A moral gives the lesson of the story in the last line.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Show a jumbled paragraph and arrange it together.
2. Identify the topic sentence in three model paragraphs.
3. Plan a story on the board using a story map (characters, problem, solution).
4. Draft the story together, adding linking words.
5. Students write their own paragraph on 'My Best Friend'.

Classroom Activities

• Story chain: each student adds one sentence to a class story.

• Picture composition: write a paragraph describing a given picture.

Assessment Questions

1. Write a paragraph on 'A Rainy Day' with a clear topic sentence.
2. Complete the story outline into a full story with a moral.
3. Rearrange the jumbled sentences into a correct paragraph.

Homework

• Write a story on 'Honesty is the best policy' in 120 words.

Time Allocation

Warm-up 5 min, teaching 20 min, writing 10 min, sharing 5 min.

Unit 8: Prepositions and Articles

Learning Objectives

• Use common prepositions of place, time and direction.

• Choose correctly between a, an and the.

• Identify errors in preposition use.

• Complete sentences with suitable prepositions and articles.

Key Concepts

• Prepositions show the relationship between a noun and other words.

• 'In' is used for months and years; 'on' for days and dates; 'at' for exact times.

• 'A/an' is used for singular countable nouns mentioned first time.

• 'The' is used for specific or already-mentioned things.

• Some phrases use no article: 'go to school', 'at home'.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Place a book in, on and under a desk to show prepositions physically.
2. Teach the time-preposition rules with a timeline chart.
3. Explain a/an/the with the 'first mention vs known thing' rule.
4. Students correct preposition errors in printed sentences.
5. Fill-in-the-blank drill on the board with justification.

Classroom Activities

• Treasure hunt: follow preposition clues around the classroom.

• Article bingo with a/an/the cards.

Assessment Questions

1. Fill in the blanks with in, on or at.
2. Insert a, an or the where needed in the paragraph.
3. Correct the preposition errors in five sentences.

Homework

• Write ten sentences using different prepositions and underline them.

Time Allocation

Demo 5 min, teaching 20 min, drill 10 min, recap 5 min.
