Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 7

Subject: Islamiat

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Belief in Allah (Tauheed)

Unit 2: Belief in Prophethood

Unit 3: Seerah: Early Life of the Prophet (PBUH)

Unit 4: Namaz: The Five Daily Prayers

Unit 5: Zakat: Charity in Islam

Unit 6: Akhlaq: Good Manners

Unit 7: The Quran: Guidance for Mankind

Unit 8: Seerah: The Migration to Madinah

DM

Unit 1: Belief in Allah (Tauheed)

Learning Objectives

• Define Tauheed and explain its meaning.
• State the effects of belief in Tauheed on a Muslim's life.
• Identify the three categories of Tauheed.
• Give examples of Tauheed from daily life.

Key Concepts

• Tauheed means belief in the Oneness of Allah.
• Allah is the Creator, Sustainer and Owner of the universe.
• Shirk means associating partners with Allah and is a great sin.
• Belief in Tauheed gives a Muslim courage and self-respect.
• The first Kalimah is the declaration of Tauheed.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Ask students what they know about the Kalimah Tayyabah.
2. Explain the meaning of the first Kalimah word by word.
3. Describe the three categories of Tauheed with examples.
4. Discuss how Tauheed shapes character: honesty, bravery, trust in Allah.
5. Students recite and write the first Kalimah with translation.

Classroom Activities

• Chart making: write the first Kalimah with its translation.
• Group discussion: how does belief in one Allah change our behaviour?

Assessment Questions

1. Define Tauheed and Shirk.
2. Write the translation of the first Kalimah.
3. Name the three categories of Tauheed.

Homework

• Learn the first Kalimah with translation by heart.

Time Allocation

Discussion 5 min, teaching 20 min, chart work 10 min, revision 5 min.

Unit 2: Belief in Prophethood

Learning Objectives

• Define the concept of Prophethood (Risalat).

• State the qualities of the Prophets.

• Explain why the Holy Prophet (peace be upon him) is the last Prophet.

• Describe the duties of a Prophet.

Key Concepts

• Prophets are chosen by Allah to guide mankind.

• They are truthful, trustworthy and sinless.

• The Holy Prophet (peace be upon him) is Khatam-un-Nabiyeen, the last Prophet.

• Prophets teach Tauheed and good morals.

• Belief in all Prophets is part of our faith.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Revise the articles of faith with a quick oral round.
2. Explain the meaning and need of Prophethood.
3. List the qualities of Prophets with one example each.
4. Explain finality of Prophethood with the Quranic verse concept.
5. Students complete a fill-in-the-blanks worksheet.

Classroom Activities

• Timeline activity: place the famous Prophets in order.

• Write five qualities of a Prophet on a chart.

Assessment Questions

1. What is meant by Khatam-un-Nabiyeen?
2. Name four qualities of the Prophets.
3. Why did Allah send Prophets?

Homework

• Write a paragraph on the importance of Prophethood.

Time Allocation

Revision 5 min, teaching 20 min, worksheet 10 min, summary 5 min.

Unit 3: Seerah: Early Life of the Prophet (PBUH)

Learning Objectives

• State the birth date and place of the Prophet (PBUH).

• Describe his childhood and youth.

• Explain his honesty and the title Al-Ameen.

• Narrate the first revelation briefly.

Key Concepts

• The Prophet (PBUH) was born in Makkah in 570 AD (Year of the Elephant).

• His father died before his birth; his mother died when he was six.

• He was known as Al-Ameen (the Trustworthy) and As-Sadiq (the Truthful).

• At age 40, he received the first revelation in the cave of Hira.

• The first revealed words were 'Iqra' (Read).

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Show Makkah on the map and introduce the Year of the Elephant.
2. Narrate the childhood events: his foster mother, the journey to Syria.
3. Explain the title Al-Ameen with the incident of the Black Stone.
4. Describe the cave of Hira and the first revelation.
5. Students retell one event in their own words.

Classroom Activities

• Draw a timeline of the Prophet's early life.

• Storytelling circle: each student narrates one event.

Assessment Questions

1. When and where was the Prophet (PBUH) born?
2. Why was he called Al-Ameen?
3. Describe the first revelation briefly.

Homework

• Write the story of the first revelation in your own words.

Time Allocation

Map work 5 min, narration 20 min, timeline 10 min, quiz 5 min.

Unit 4: Namaz: The Five Daily Prayers

Learning Objectives

• State the importance of Namaz in Islam.

• Name the five prayers with their timings.

• Describe the method of performing Namaz step by step.

• Explain the benefits of praying regularly.

Key Concepts

• Namaz is the second pillar of Islam and the first thing asked about on the Day of Judgement.

• The five prayers are Fajr, Zuhr, Asr, Maghrib and Isha.

• Wudu (ablution) is necessary before Namaz.

• Namaz keeps a Muslim away from evil deeds.

• Congregational prayer has 27 times more reward.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Ask students which prayers they performed today.
2. Explain the importance of Namaz with a Hadith.
3. Demonstrate the steps of Wudu practically.
4. Demonstrate one rakat of Namaz step by step.
5. Students practise in rows while the teacher corrects postures.

Classroom Activities

• Practical demonstration of Wudu at the taps.

• Group practice of one rakat with correct recitation.

Assessment Questions

1. Name the five prayers with their number of rakats.
2. Write the steps of Wudu in order.
3. Why is congregational prayer better?

Homework

• Practise Wudu and one rakat at home and write the steps.

Time Allocation

Discussion 5 min, teaching 15 min, practical demo 15 min, review 5 min.

Unit 5: Zakat: Charity in Islam

Learning Objectives

• Define Zakat and state its importance.

• Explain who must pay Zakat and the nisab.

• List the people entitled to receive Zakat.

• Describe the social benefits of Zakat.

Key Concepts

• Zakat is the third pillar of Islam.

• It is 2.5% of savings held for one lunar year above the nisab.

• Nisab is the minimum amount (value of 52.5 tolas of silver or 7.5 tolas of gold).

• Zakat is given to the poor, needy, debtors and others named in the Quran.

• Zakat reduces poverty and creates love in society.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Discuss: why do some people have more wealth than others?
2. Define Zakat and explain the rate of 2.5% with a calculation.
3. Explain nisab in simple terms with current approximate values.
4. List the eight categories of recipients from Surah Taubah.
5. Solve two Zakat calculation problems on the board.

Classroom Activities

• Calculate Zakat on given amounts in groups.

• Poster: 'Zakat removes poverty'.

Assessment Questions

1. Define Zakat and state its rate.
2. Who are entitled to receive Zakat? Name four.
3. Calculate Zakat on savings of Rs 200,000.

Homework

• Write five social benefits of Zakat.

Time Allocation

Discussion 5 min, teaching 20 min, calculations 10 min, summary 5 min.

DM

Unit 6: Akhlaq: Good Manners

Learning Objectives

• Define Akhlaq and state its importance.

• List good manners taught by Islam.

• Explain the rights of parents, teachers and neighbours.

• Practise polite speech in the classroom.

Key Concepts

• Akhlaq means character and manners.

• The Prophet (PBUH) was sent to perfect good character.

• Respect for parents is mentioned in the Quran right after worship of Allah.

• A Muslim speaks the truth, keeps promises and helps others.

• Good manners include greeting with Salam and smiling.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Ask students to list manners they like in others.
2. Present the Hadith: 'The best among you are the best in character.'
3. Discuss rights of parents, teachers, neighbours and guests.
4. Role-play polite and impolite situations.
5. Students take a 'good manners pledge' for the week.

Classroom Activities

• Role play: greeting a guest politely.

• Make a class chart of ten good manners.

Assessment Questions

1. Write four rights of parents.
2. How should a Muslim treat neighbours?
3. Give two examples of good speech.

Homework

• Practise three good manners at home and write about the experience.

Time Allocation

Discussion 5 min, teaching 20 min, role play 10 min, pledge 5 min.

DM

Unit 7: The Quran: Guidance for Mankind

Learning Objectives

• State that the Quran is the last revealed book.

• Explain the importance of reciting and understanding the Quran.

• Name the first and last Surahs.

• Describe the etiquette of handling the Quran.

Key Concepts

• The Quran was revealed to the Prophet (PBUH) over 23 years.

• It was revealed in the month of Ramadan on Laylat-ul-Qadr.

• The first Surah is Al-Fatihah; the last is An-Nas.

• The Quran is a complete code of life.

• We must handle the Quran with respect and in a state of Wudu.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Ask students which Surahs they have memorised.
2. Explain revelation: 23 years, first in cave Hira.
3. Teach the etiquette: Wudu, clean place, respect.
4. Recite Surah Al-Fatihah together with translation.
5. Discuss one guidance from the Quran for daily life.

Classroom Activities

• Recitation competition of short Surahs.

• Write the names of ten Surahs from memory.

Assessment Questions

1. Name the first and last Surahs of the Quran.
2. In which month was the Quran first revealed?
3. Write three etiquettes of reciting the Quran.

Homework

• Memorise Surah Al-Ikhlas with translation.

Time Allocation

Recitation 10 min, teaching 20 min, activity 5 min, review 5 min.

DM

Unit 8: Seerah: The Migration to Madinah

Learning Objectives

• Explain the reasons for the migration (Hijrah).

• Narrate the events of the journey to Madinah.

• Describe the reception of the Prophet (PBUH) in Madinah.

• State the importance of Hijrah in Islamic history.

Key Concepts

• The Makkans persecuted the early Muslims, so Allah ordered migration.

• The Prophet (PBUH) migrated with the first caliph in 622 AD.

• They hid in the cave of Thawr for three days.

• The people of Madinah welcomed them with joy.

• The Islamic calendar begins from the year of Hijrah.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Revise the persecution in Makkah briefly.
2. Narrate the secret plan of migration with a route map.
3. Describe the cave of Thawr and the spider's web story.
4. Explain the warm welcome in Madinah and the building of the mosque.
5. Students arrange the events in correct order on a timeline.

Classroom Activities

• Draw the route map from Makkah to Madinah.

• Role play the welcome of the Ansar.

Assessment Questions

1. Why did the Muslims migrate to Madinah?
2. Who accompanied the Holy Prophet in the Hijrah?
3. Why does the Islamic calendar start from Hijrah?

Homework

• Write the story of Hijrah in your own words.

Time Allocation

Revision 5 min, narration 20 min, map work 10 min, quiz 5 min.