Unit 1: Makharij: Points of Articulation

Learning Objectives

• Define Makharij.

• Identify the five main areas of articulation.

• Pronounce letters from their correct Makharij.

• Distinguish between similar-sounding letters.

Key Concepts

• Makharij are the points in the mouth and throat where letters are produced.

• The five areas are: throat, tongue, lips, nasal cavity and the mouth cavity.

• Correct Makhraj changes meaning, e.g. Qalb vs Kalb.

• Heavy letters (Tafkheem) are pronounced with a full mouth.

• Practice with a teacher corrects pronunciation.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recite the alphabet and ask students to feel where each letter comes from.
2. Explain the five articulation areas with a mouth diagram.
3. Demonstrate throat letters: Hamza, Ha, Ain, Ha, Ghain, Kha.
4. Demonstrate tongue and lip letters with repetition.
5. Students recite letters in groups while the teacher corrects.

Classroom Activities

• Makhraj chart: point to the area while pronouncing the letter.

• Pair correction: listen to your partner and correct mistakes.

Assessment Questions

1. Name the five areas of articulation.
2. From which Makhraj is Qaf pronounced?
3. Distinguish between Seen and Suad in pronunciation.

Homework

• Practise the throat letters ten times each with correct Makhraj.

Time Allocation

Recitation 10 min, teaching 20 min, practice 5 min, correction 5 min.

Unit 2: Noon Sakinah and Tanween Rules

Learning Objectives

• Define Noon Sakinah and Tanween.

• Explain the four rules: Izhar, Idgham, Iqlab, Ikhfa.

• Identify the letters of each rule.

• Apply the rules while reciting.

Key Concepts

• Noon Sakinah is a Noon with a sukoon; Tanween is double vowel signs.

• Izhar: clear pronunciation before six throat letters.

• Idgham: merging the Noon into the next letter.

• Iqlab: changing Noon into Meem before Ba.

• Ikhfa: hiding the Noon sound before fifteen letters.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Write examples of Noon Sakinah and Tanween on the board.
2. Explain Izhar with the six throat letters.
3. Explain Idgham with and without Ghunnah.
4. Explain Iqlab and Ikhfa with examples.
5. Students recite verses containing each rule.

Classroom Activities

• Colour-code the rules in a printed verse.

• Rule identification race in teams.

Assessment Questions

1. Name the four rules of Noon Sakinah.
2. Which letters cause Izhar?
3. Give one example each of Idgham and Iqlab.

Homework

• Find two examples of each rule in the Quran and mark them.

Time Allocation

Revision 5 min, teaching 20 min, recitation 10 min, quiz 5 min.

Unit 3: Surah Al-Fatihah: Recitation and Meaning

Learning Objectives

• Recite Surah Al-Fatihah with correct Tajweed.

• Explain the meaning of each verse.

• State the importance of Surah Al-Fatihah.

• Memorise the Surah completely.

Key Concepts

• Al-Fatihah is the first Surah and the greatest chapter of the Quran.

• It is recited in every rakat of Namaz.

• It praises Allah and asks for guidance to the straight path.

• It teaches that Allah is the Most Merciful.

• Understanding the meaning increases concentration in prayer.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recite the Surah slowly; students repeat after the teacher.
2. Correct Makharij and Tajweed errors individually.
3. Explain the translation verse by verse.
4. Discuss why it is called 'the Opening'.
5. Students memorise one verse at a time with repetition.

Classroom Activities

• Memorisation pairs: test each other verse by verse.

• Write the translation in notebooks.

Assessment Questions

1. Recite Surah Al-Fatihah with Tajweed.
2. What is the meaning of 'Ihdinas Siratal Mustaqeem'?
3. Why is this Surah recited in every rakat?

Homework

• Memorise the full Surah with translation.

Time Allocation

Recitation 15 min, meaning 15 min, memorisation 10 min.

Unit 4: Surah Al-Ikhlas, Al-Falaq and An-Nas

Learning Objectives

• Recite the three Surahs with correct Tajweed.

• Explain their meanings.

• State when these Surahs are recited.

• Memorise all three Surahs.

Key Concepts

• Al-Ikhlas describes the Oneness of Allah; it equals one-third of the Quran in reward.

• Al-Falaq and An-Nas are called the Mu'awwidhatayn (seeking refuge).

• They protect from evil when recited morning and evening.

• The Prophet (PBUH) recited them before sleeping.

• Correct Tajweed beautifies recitation.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recite each Surah; students repeat line by line.
2. Correct pronunciation of difficult words.
3. Explain the translation of each Surah.
4. Teach the times of recitation: morning, evening, before sleep.
5. Memorisation drill in pairs.

Classroom Activities

• Recitation competition of the three Surahs.

• Make a daily recitation timetable card.

Assessment Questions

1. Recite the three Surahs with Tajweed.
2. What are the Mu'awwidhatayn?
3. When should these Surahs be recited?

Homework

• Memorise the three Surahs with meanings.

Time Allocation

Recitation 15 min, meaning 15 min, memorisation 10 min.

Unit 5: Rules of Meem Sakinah

Learning Objectives

• Define Meem Sakinah.

• Explain its three rules: Ikhfa Shafawi, Idgham Shafawi, Izhar Shafawi.

• Identify the letters for each rule.

• Apply the rules in recitation.

Key Concepts

• Meem Sakinah is a Meem with sukoon.

• Ikhfa Shafawi: hide the Meem before Ba.

• Idgham Shafawi: merge the Meem into another Meem.

• Izhar Shafawi: pronounce the Meem clearly before all other letters.

• These rules are applied with the lips (Shafawi means 'of the lips').

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Revise Noon Sakinah rules briefly.
2. Introduce Meem Sakinah with board examples.
3. Explain each of the three rules with examples.
4. Students find examples in the Mushaf.
5. Recitation practice applying the rules.

Classroom Activities

• Mark the three rules with different colours in a verse.

• Team quiz on rule identification.

Assessment Questions

1. Name the three rules of Meem Sakinah.
2. Give one example of Ikhfa Shafawi.
3. Before which letter does Iqlab-like change occur for Meem?

Homework

• Find three examples of each rule from the Quran.

Time Allocation

Revision 5 min, teaching 20 min, practice 10 min, quiz 5 min.

Unit 6: Waqf: Rules of Stopping

Learning Objectives

• Define Waqf and explain its importance.

• Identify the Waqf signs in the Mushaf.

• Explain Waqf Lazim, Waqf Jaiz and Waqf Mamnu.

• Apply correct stopping in recitation.

Key Concepts

• Waqf means stopping at the right place during recitation.

• Wrong stopping can change the meaning.

• Meem (م) means stopping is necessary.

• Jeem (ج) means stopping is allowed.

• La (لا) means do not stop here.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recite a verse stopping at wrong places to show meaning change.
2. Introduce the common Waqf signs with a chart.
3. Explain each sign with an example from the Quran.
4. Students practise stopping at marked places.
5. Recite a passage applying the signs.

Classroom Activities

• Sign-matching game: sign cards to meaning cards.

• Mark Waqf signs in a printed passage.

Assessment Questions

1. What does the sign Meem (م) mean?
2. Why is correct Waqf important?
3. Name three Waqf signs and their meanings.

Homework

• Practise reciting a page applying the Waqf signs.

Time Allocation

Demo 5 min, teaching 20 min, practice 10 min, review 5 min.

Unit 7: Surah Al-Kausar and Al-Asr

Learning Objectives

• Recite both Surahs with correct Tajweed.

• Explain their meanings and lessons.

• Memorise both Surahs.

• Apply Tajweed rules learnt so far.

Key Concepts

• Al-Kausar is the shortest Surah; it promises abundance to the Prophet (PBUH).

• It teaches gratitude and sacrifice.

• Al-Asr teaches that time is precious and most people are in loss.

• Success needs faith, good deeds, truth and patience.

• Both Surahs are short but full of guidance.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recite Al-Kausar; students repeat and memorise.
2. Explain its meaning and the lesson of gratitude.
3. Recite Al-Asr; students repeat and memorise.
4. Explain the four conditions of success in Al-Asr.
5. Identify Tajweed rules in both Surahs.
