Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 8

Subject: English

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Active and Passive Voice

Unit 2: Conditionals and Wishes

Unit 3: Essay Writing

Unit 4: Comprehension: Reading for Detail

Unit 5: Vocabulary: Idioms and Phrasal Verbs

Unit 6: Reported Speech: Advanced

Unit 7: Formal Writing: Applications and Notices

Unit 8: Grammar Review: Clauses and Sentence Types

DM

Unit 1: Active and Passive Voice

Learning Objectives

• Distinguish between active and passive voice.

• Convert active sentences into passive voice.

• Identify when the passive voice is preferred.

• Use the passive correctly in all tenses.

Key Concepts

• In active voice the subject does the action; in passive the subject receives it.

• Passive structure: object + be + past participle (+ by + subject).

• The 'be' verb changes with tense.

• Passive is used when the doer is unknown or unimportant.

• Some verbs (like intransitive verbs) cannot be made passive.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Present the conversion formula on the board.
2. Convert present and past tense sentences together.
3. Practise future and perfect tenses.
4. Students convert a paragraph into the passive.

Classroom Activities

• Voice detective: find passive sentences in a newspaper.

• Team conversion race.

Assessment Questions

1. Change into passive: She writes a letter.
2. Change into passive: They have completed the project.
3. When is the passive voice preferred?

Homework

• Convert ten active sentences into passive voice.

Time Allocation

Comparison 5 min, teaching 20 min, practice 10 min, review 5 min.

Unit 2: Conditionals and Wishes

Learning Objectives

• Identify zero, first, second and third conditionals.

• Form conditional sentences correctly.

• Express wishes with 'wish' and 'if only'.

• Use conditionals in speaking and writing.

Key Concepts

• Zero conditional: general truths (If you heat ice, it melts).

• First conditional: real future possibility.

• Second conditional: imaginary present situations.

• Third conditional: regrets about the past.

• 'I wish' expresses desires about present or past.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Present real-life situations and match them to conditional types.
2. Teach each type with its structure and timeline.
3. Drill: complete half-sentences in pairs.
4. Introduce 'wish' sentences.
5. Students write about 'If I were the principal...'.

Classroom Activities

• Conditional chain game around the class.

• Write three wishes for the future.

Assessment Questions

1. Complete: If it rains tomorrow, we ___.
2. Write a second conditional sentence about winning a prize.
3. Express a wish about your English.

Homework

• Write two sentences of each conditional type.

Time Allocation

Warm-up 5 min, teaching 20 min, drill 10 min, writing 5 min.

Unit 3: Essay Writing

Learning Objectives

• Plan an essay with introduction, body and conclusion.

• Write a 200-word essay on a given topic.

• Use varied vocabulary and linking words.

• Edit and improve a first draft.

Key Concepts

• An essay has three parts: introduction, body paragraphs, conclusion.

• The introduction presents the topic and thesis.

• Each body paragraph covers one main point.

• Linking words (however, moreover, therefore) connect ideas.

• Editing checks grammar, spelling and flow.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Analyse a model essay's structure together.
2. Brainstorm points on 'My Aim in Life'.
3. Draft the introduction together on the board.
4. Students write body paragraphs independently.
5. Peer editing with a checklist.

Classroom Activities

• Essay planning competition in groups.

• Peer editing and best-essay display.

Assessment Questions

1. Write an essay on 'The Importance of Education' (200 words).
2. Identify the three parts of the given essay.
3. Improve the weak paragraph provided.

Homework

• Write an essay on 'My Favourite Personality'.

Time Allocation

Analysis 10 min, planning 10 min, writing 15 min, editing 5 min.

Unit 4: Comprehension: Reading for Detail

Learning Objectives

• Read longer passages fluently.

• Answer reference and inference questions.

• Identify the writer's tone and purpose.

• Summarise a passage in 60 words.

Key Concepts

• Reference questions ask what 'it' or 'they' refers to.

• Tone can be serious, humorous or persuasive.

• The writer's purpose may be to inform, entertain or persuade.

• A summary keeps only the main ideas.

• Evidence from the text supports answers.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Read the passage aloud with the class following.
2. Model answering a reference question.
3. Discuss the writer's tone and purpose.
4. Students answer the question set.
5. Guide a 60-word summary together.

Classroom Activities

• Question tennis: pairs ask and answer about the passage.

• Summary challenge: exactly 60 words.

Assessment Questions

1. Answer six questions on the unseen passage.
2. What is the writer's purpose?
3. Summarise the passage in 60 words.

Homework

• Read the next passage and write a summary.

Time Allocation

Reading 10 min, strategies 10 min, practice 15 min, summary 5 min.

Unit 5: Vocabulary: Idioms and Phrasal Verbs

Learning Objectives

• Learn fifteen common idioms with meanings.

• Learn ten phrasal verbs.

• Use idioms and phrasal verbs in sentences.

• Guess meanings from context.

Key Concepts

• An idiom's meaning is different from its words (e.g. 'break the ice').

• Phrasal verbs combine a verb with a preposition (e.g. 'give up').

• Idioms make speech colourful and natural.

• Context helps guess unknown idioms.

• Using idioms correctly needs practice.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Act out three idioms and let the class guess.
2. Present fifteen idioms with meanings and examples.
3. Present ten phrasal verbs with sentences.
4. Students match idioms to meanings.
5. Each student writes five sentences using new idioms.

Classroom Activities

• Idiom charades in teams.

• Idiom story: use five idioms in a story.

Assessment Questions

1. Give the meanings of five idioms.
2. Use three phrasal verbs in sentences.
3. Choose the correct idiom to complete the sentences.

Homework

• Learn the idiom list and write a dialogue using five.

Time Allocation

Guessing 5 min, teaching 20 min, games 10 min, writing 5 min.

Unit 6: Reported Speech: Advanced

Learning Objectives

• Report statements, questions and commands.

• Apply backshift of tenses correctly.

• Change time and place expressions.

• Report a dialogue as a paragraph.

Key Concepts

• Reported questions use statement word order.

• Commands are reported with 'told/asked + to + verb'.

• 'Said to' changes to 'told' or 'asked'.

• Time words shift: now → then, here → there.

• Reporting verbs add meaning: admitted, suggested, warned.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Revise basic statement reporting quickly.
2. Teach reporting yes/no and wh-questions.
3. Teach reporting commands and requests.
4. Practise time-word changes.
5. Students report a full dialogue.

Classroom Activities

• Interview and report: interview a partner, then report.

• Convert a comic strip dialogue into reported speech.

Assessment Questions

1. Report: He said, 'Where do you live?'
2. Report: She said, 'Open the door.'
3. Report the given dialogue in a paragraph.

Homework

• Report ten mixed sentences.

Time Allocation

Revision 5 min, teaching 20 min, practice 10 min, review 5 min.

Unit 7: Formal Writing: Applications and Notices

Learning Objectives

• Write a formal application with correct format.

• Draft a notice for the school board.

• Write a formal email.

• Use polite and precise language.

Key Concepts

• Formal writing avoids slang and contractions.

• An application needs sender's address, date, subject and respectful tone.

• A notice is brief: what, when, where, whom to contact.

• Formal emails need clear subjects and signatures.

• Politeness markers: 'kindly', 'I would be grateful'.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Compare a casual message with a formal application.
2. Draft an application for fee concession together.
3. Draft a notice for a science exhibition.
4. Draft a formal email to a publisher.
5. Students write their own application.

Classroom Activities

• Notice-board project: write real notices for class events.

• Peer review of applications with a checklist.

Assessment Questions

1. Write an application for urgent leave.
2. Draft a notice for lost library books.
3. Point out informal expressions in the given email and correct them.

Homework

• Write an application to the principal for a character certificate.

Time Allocation

Comparison 5 min, teaching 20 min, writing 10 min, review 5 min.

Unit 8: Grammar Review: Clauses and Sentence Types

Learning Objectives

• Identify main and subordinate clauses.

• Classify sentences as simple, compound and complex.

• Use relative pronouns correctly.

• Combine short sentences using conjunctions.

Key Concepts

• A clause has a subject and a verb.

• Simple: one clause; compound: two main clauses; complex: main + subordinate.

• Relative pronouns (who, which, that) join clauses.

• Subordinating conjunctions: because, although, when, if.

• Varied sentences make writing interesting.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Break long sentences into clauses on the board.
2. Classify ten sentences as simple, compound or complex.
3. Teach relative pronouns with examples.
4. Combine pairs of short sentences.
5. Students rewrite a paragraph using varied sentences.

Classroom Activities

• Sentence combining tournament.

• Clause hunt in the textbook passage.

Assessment Questions

1. Classify five sentences.
2. Combine using who/which: The boy is my friend. He won the prize.
3. Join with 'although': It rained. We played the match.

Homework

• Write five sentences of each type.

Time Allocation

Warm-up 5 min, teaching 20 min, practice 10 min, review 5 min.