Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 1

Subject: Nazra

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Noorani Qaida: Alif to Kha

Unit 2: Harakaat: Zabar, Zer and Pesh

Unit 3: Tanween: Double Harakaat

Unit 4: Madd Letters: Alif, Waw and Ya

Unit 5: Sakinah and Shaddah

Unit 6: Surah Al-Ikhlas

DM

Unit 1: Noorani Qaida: Alif to Kha

Learning Objectives

• Students will recognise the Arabic letters from Alif to Kha.

• Students will pronounce each letter from its correct makhraj.

• Students will read the letters in order without stopping.

Key Concepts

• The Arabic alphabet begins with Alif, Baa, Taa and Thaa.

• Each letter comes out from a special place called makhraj.

• Jeem, Haa and Kha come from the middle of the throat.

• Reading slowly with tajweed is the habit of a good qari.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. The teacher writes Alif to Kha on the board and reads each letter.
2. Students repeat each letter after the teacher with correct makhraj.
3. The teacher points at random letters for quick recognition.
4. Students read the row of letters from the Noorani Qaida together.
5. Students practise the throat letters Jeem, Haa and Kha slowly.

Classroom Activities

• Makhraj game: the teacher says a letter, students point to the throat or lips.

• Letter race: read Alif to Kha without a mistake.

Assessment Questions

1. Read the letters Alif to Kha aloud.
2. From where does the letter Kha come out?
3. Point to the letter Jeem on the board.
4. Read any five letters the teacher points at.

Homework

• Read Alif to Kha from the Qaida three times.

Time Allocation

5 periods of 35 minutes each.

DM

Unit 2: Harakaat: Zabar, Zer and Pesh

Learning Objectives

• Students will read letters with zabar, zer and pesh.

• Students will tell the sound each harakah gives.

• Students will read joined letters carrying harakaat.

Key Concepts

• Zabar is a small slant above the letter and gives an a sound.

• Zer is a small slant below the letter and gives an i sound.

• Pesh is a small curl above the letter and gives a u sound.

• One harakah on a letter changes how we read it.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. The teacher writes Baa with zabar, zer and pesh and reads each.
2. Students repeat ba, bi and bu after the teacher.
3. The teacher adds harakaat to other letters for practice.
4. Students read a line of letters with mixed harakaat.
5. Students write letters with harakaat in their notebooks.

Classroom Activities

• Harakaat bingo: cover the letter when the teacher reads its sound.

• Read and clap: clap on every letter carrying a pesh.

Assessment Questions

1. Read: ba with zabar, zer and pesh.
2. Where is the zer written on a letter?
3. Read these letters: ta with zabar, seen with zer.
4. What sound does pesh give?

Homework

• Read one line of harakaat from the Qaida.

Time Allocation

4 periods of 35 minutes each.

DM

Unit 3: Tanween: Double Harakaat

Learning Objectives

• Students will read letters carrying tanween.

• Students will tell the sound of two zabars, two zers and two peshes.

• Students will read words ending with tanween.

Key Concepts

• Two zabars on a letter give an an sound.

• Two zers on a letter give an in sound.

• Two peshes on a letter give an un sound.

• Tanween is also called double harakah.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. The teacher writes Baa with two zabars and reads ban.
2. Students repeat ban, bin and bun after the teacher.
3. The teacher shows tanween on other letters.
4. Students read words ending with tanween from the Qaida.
5. Students write three letters with tanween in their notebooks.

Classroom Activities

• Tanween match: match the letter card with its sound card.

• Echo reading: the class echoes each tanween word the teacher reads.

Assessment Questions

1. Read: Baa with two zabars.
2. What sound do two peshes give?
3. Read the word ending with two zers on the board.
4. How many harakaat make a tanween?

Homework

• Read the tanween lesson from the Qaida twice.

Time Allocation

4 periods of 35 minutes each.

Unit 4: Madd Letters: Alif, Waw and Ya

Learning Objectives

• Students will read madd letters with a long stretched sound.

• Students will name the three madd letters.

• Students will stretch the sound for the correct length.

Key Concepts

• Alif, Waw and Ya are called the letters of madd.

• Madd means to stretch the sound long.

• Alif maddah comes after a letter with zabar.

• Waw maddah comes after a letter with pesh, Ya after a letter with zer.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. The teacher writes baa with Alif and stretches the sound: baa.
2. Students repeat the long sound after the teacher.
3. The teacher shows Waw maddah and Ya maddah with examples.
4. Students read madd words from the Qaida slowly.
5. Students mark the madd letters in the words with a circle.

Classroom Activities

• Stretch contest: who holds the madd sound longest and correctly.

• Find the madd letters in the words on the board.

Assessment Questions

1. Read: baa with Alif maddah.
2. Name the three letters of madd.
3. After which harakah does Waw maddah come?
4. Read two madd words from the Qaida.

Homework

• Read the madd lesson from the Qaida twice.

Time Allocation

4 periods of 35 minutes each.

Unit 5: Sakinah and Shaddah

Learning Objectives

• Students will read letters carrying sakinah.

• Students will read letters carrying shaddah with stress.

• Students will join sakinah and shaddah letters in words.

Key Concepts

• Sakinah is a small circle above a letter with no vowel sound.

• A sakinah letter joins quickly with the letter before it.

• Shaddah is a small w shape that doubles the letter.

• A shaddah letter is read with force and stress.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. The teacher writes a sakinah letter and joins it with the letter before.
2. Students repeat the joined reading after the teacher.
3. The teacher writes a shaddah letter and reads it with stress.
4. Students practise shaddah words from the Qaida.
5. Students read mixed sakinah and shaddah words in chorus.

Classroom Activities

• Stress clap: clap hard on every shaddah letter while reading.

• Join race: build sakinah words with letter cards.

Assessment Questions

1. Read: ab with sakinah on Baa.
2. What does shaddah look like?
3. Read a shaddah word from the board.
4. Join Meem sakinah with the letter before it.

Homework

• Read the sakinah and shaddah lesson from the Qaida.

Time Allocation

4 periods of 35 minutes each.

DM

Unit 6: Surah Al-Ikhlas

Learning Objectives

• Students will recite Surah Al-Ikhlas from memory.

• Students will say the simple meaning of the Surah.

• Students will recite the Surah with correct pronunciation.

Key Concepts

• Surah Al-Ikhlas is a short Surah of the Holy Quran.

• It has four verses and tells us Allah is One.

• It is also called Surah At-Tawheed.

• Reciting it brings great reward from Allah.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. The teacher recites the first verse and students repeat it.
2. The teacher adds one verse at a time until all four are learnt.
3. The teacher explains the simple meaning of each verse.
4. Students recite the full Surah together slowly.
5. Volunteers recite the Surah alone in front of the class.

Classroom Activities

• Verse chain: each row recites one verse in turn.

• Draw four stars for the four verses and recite under each.

Assessment Questions

1. Recite Surah Al-Ikhlas from memory.
2. How many verses does Surah Al-Ikhlas have?
3. What does this Surah tell us about Allah?
4. Recite the first verse of the Surah.

Homework

• Recite Surah Al-Ikhlas three times at home.

Time Allocation

5 periods of 35 minutes each.

DM