Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 1

Subject: Urdu

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Urdu Alphabet: Alif to Say

Unit 2: Urdu Alphabet: Jeem to Sheen

Unit 3: Urdu Alphabet: Suaad to Bari Yay

Unit 4: Joining Letters: Two-Letter Words

Unit 5: Introducing Myself in Urdu

Unit 6: Names of Colours in Urdu

DM

Unit 1: Urdu Alphabet: Alif to Say

Learning Objectives

• Students will recognise the Urdu letters from Alif to Say.

• Students will say the names of these letters in order.

• Students will match each letter with a familiar Urdu word.

Key Concepts

• The Urdu alphabet begins with Alif, Bay, Pay, Tay, Ttay and Say.

• Urdu letters join together to make words.

• Each Urdu letter has its own name and shape.

• Many Urdu letters look alike but carry different dots.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. The teacher writes Alif to Say on the board and reads each name aloud.
2. Students repeat the letter names together after the teacher.
3. The teacher shows picture cards, like Alif for anaar and Bay for bakri.
4. Students trace each letter in the air with a finger.
5. Students match letter cards with picture cards in pairs.

Classroom Activities

• Sing the Urdu alphabet rhyme for this first group of letters.

• Letter hunt: find Alif to Say on the classroom Urdu chart.

Assessment Questions

1. Point to the letter Bay and say its name.
2. Which letter comes after Tay?
3. Match the letter Pay with its picture card.
4. Write Alif, Bay and Pay in your notebook.

Homework

• Practise writing the letters from Alif to Say two times.

Time Allocation

4 periods of 35 minutes each.

Unit 2: Urdu Alphabet: Jeem to Sheen

Learning Objectives

• Students will recognise the Urdu letters from Jeem to Sheen.

• Students will say the names of these letters in order.

• Students will sort the letters by their dots and shapes.

Key Concepts

• This group includes Jeem, Chay, Hay, Khay, Daal, Ddaal and Zaal.

• It also includes Ray, Rray, Zay, Xay, Seen and Sheen.

• Dots above or below a letter change its name and sound.

• Hay and Khay differ only by the position of their dots.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. The teacher writes Jeem to Sheen on the board and reads each name aloud.
2. Students repeat the letter names together after the teacher.
3. The teacher groups similar letters, like Jeem, Chay, Hay and Khay.
4. Students count the dots on each letter and say its name.
5. Students arrange letter cards in the correct order on the desk.

Classroom Activities

• Dot detective: students circle the dots on large letter cards.

• Team race to place Jeem to Sheen cards in the right order.

Assessment Questions

1. Say the names of Jeem, Chay, Hay and Khay in order.
2. Which letter has three dots below it?
3. Point to Sheen on the alphabet chart.
4. Write Seen and Sheen in your notebook.

Homework

• Practise writing the letters from Jeem to Sheen two times.

Time Allocation

4 periods of 35 minutes each.

Unit 3: Urdu Alphabet: Suaad to Bari Yay

Learning Objectives

• Students will recognise the Urdu letters from Suaad to Bari Yay.

• Students will say the names of these letters in order.

• Students will recite the full Urdu alphabet from Alif to Yay.

Key Concepts

• This group includes Suaad, Zuaad, Toay, Zoay, Ain and Ghain.

• It also includes Fay, Qaaf, Kaaf, Gaaf, Laam, Meem and Noon.

• The alphabet ends with Waw, Choti Hay, Hamza, Choti Yay and Bari Yay.

• The Urdu alphabet has thirty seven letters in total.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. The teacher writes Suaad to Bari Yay on the board and reads each name aloud.
2. Students repeat the letter names together after the teacher.
3. The teacher revises the first two groups and links them with the third.
4. Students recite the whole alphabet from Alif to Yay in chorus.
5. Students write the new letters in their notebooks with the teacher.

Classroom Activities

• Full alphabet recitation contest between two rows of students.

• Draw your favourite Urdu letter big and decorate it.

Assessment Questions

1. Recite the Urdu alphabet from Alif to Yay.
2. Name the last three letters of the Urdu alphabet.
3. Which letter comes after Kaaf?
4. Write Laam, Meem and Noon in your notebook.

Homework

• Write the full Urdu alphabet once in the notebook.

Time Allocation

5 periods of 35 minutes each.

Unit 4: Joining Letters: Two-Letter Words

Learning Objectives

• Students will join two Urdu letters to read simple words.

• Students will read two-letter words like ab, am and an.

• Students will write two-letter words in their notebooks.

Key Concepts

• Urdu letters change shape when they join other letters.

• Two letters joined together make a small word.

• Reading joined letters is called jorr torr.

• Some letters, like Alif and Daal, do not join the next letter.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. The teacher joins two letters on the board and reads the word aloud.
2. Students repeat the joined word after the teacher.
3. The teacher shows how Alif refuses to join the letter after it.
4. Students join letter cards on their desks to build small words.
5. Students read a list of two-letter words from the board in chorus.

Classroom Activities

• Word building race with letter cards in small groups.

• Match the joined word card with its picture.

Assessment Questions

1. Read these words aloud: ab, am, an, as.
2. Join Bay and Alif and read the word.
3. Which letter does not join the letter after it?
4. Write three two-letter words in your notebook.

Homework

• Read five two-letter words to a family member.

Time Allocation

4 periods of 35 minutes each.

DM

Unit 5: Introducing Myself in Urdu

Learning Objectives

• Students will say their name and age in simple Urdu sentences.

• Students will use the sentence Mera naam ___ hai in speech.

• Students will answer basic introduction questions.

Key Concepts

• Urdu sentences usually end with the word hai.

• Mein chhay saal ka hoon means I am six years old.

• A polite introduction begins with Assalam-o-Alaikum.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Students repeat each sentence after the teacher.
2. Students practise in pairs, asking Tumhara naam kya hai.
3. The teacher corrects sentence order gently during practice.
4. Volunteers introduce themselves in front of the class.

Classroom Activities

• Introduction circle: each student introduces the friend on the right.

• Draw yourself and write Mera naam ___ hai below.

Assessment Questions

1. Say your full introduction in Urdu.
2. What do you say first when you introduce yourself?
3. Complete: Mera naam ___ hai.
4. How do you ask someone their name in Urdu?

Homework

• Introduce yourself in Urdu to a family member.

Time Allocation

3 periods of 35 minutes each.

Unit 6: Names of Colours in Urdu

Learning Objectives

• Students will name six colours in Urdu.

• Students will use the sentence Yeh ___ hai to name colours.

• Students will match Urdu colour names with colour cards.

Key Concepts

• Laal means red and neela means blue.

• Peela means yellow and sabz means green.

• Kala means black and sufaid means white.

• The sentence Yeh laal hai means This is red.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. The teacher holds up colour cards and says each Urdu name.
2. Students repeat the Urdu colour names after the teacher.
3. Students find one object of each colour in the classroom.
4. Students make the sentence Yeh neela hai about their objects.
5. The class plays a quick colour naming game with the cards.

Classroom Activities

• Colour hunt: bring one object of each colour from home.

• Paint a rainbow and say each colour name in Urdu.

Assessment Questions

1. Name six colours in Urdu.
2. What is the Urdu name for the colour green?
3. Complete: Yeh ___ hai for a red apple.
4. Point to something sufaid in the classroom.

Homework

• Draw three things and write their Urdu colour names below.

Time Allocation

3 periods of 35 minutes each.

DM