Unit 1: Essay Writing: Types of Essays

Learning Objectives

• Students will identify the four main types of essays and state the purpose of each.

• Students will distinguish a narrative essay from a descriptive essay using clear examples.

• Students will plan a short essay by writing a thesis statement and an outline.

Key Concepts

• An essay is a short piece of writing that presents the writer's ideas on a topic in an organised way.

• A narrative essay tells a story or an event in a sequence, often from the writer's own experience.

• A descriptive essay paints a picture with words, using sensory details to describe a person, place or thing.

• An expository essay explains or informs, presenting facts and reasons in a clear, logical order.

• An argumentative essay takes a position on an issue and supports it with evidence and reasoning.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. The teacher asks students what essays they have written before and what made them easy or hard.

2. The teacher writes the four essay types on the board and explains the purpose of each with a one-line example.

3. The teacher reads the opening paragraph of a narrative essay and asks students to spot the story elements.

4. The teacher contrasts it with a descriptive paragraph about a rainy morning and highlights the sensory words.

5. The teacher shows a short expository paragraph and an argumentative paragraph on the same topic and compares their aims.

6. The teacher models a thesis statement and a three-point outline for the topic 'The Importance of Clean Water'.

Classroom Activities

• Type match: students match five short paragraphs to their essay types and justify each choice.

• Thesis builder: in pairs, students write a thesis statement for the topic 'Mobile Phones in Schools'.

• Outline race: groups build a three-point outline for an expository essay on 'Why Trees Matter'.

Assessment Questions

1. Name the four main types of essays and write the purpose of each in one sentence.

2. Give one example topic for a narrative essay and one for an argumentative essay.

3. Write a thesis statement for an essay on 'The Value of Reading Books'.

Homework

• Write a 150-word outline for a descriptive essay on 'My Favourite Place in My Town'.

• Collect two short essay paragraphs from a newspaper or textbook and identify their types with reasons.
