Unit 1: Common and Proper Nouns

Learning Objectives

• Students will define common and proper nouns in their own words.
• Students will pick out common and proper nouns from given sentences.
• Students will use capital letters correctly with proper nouns in writing.
• Students will rewrite sentences changing common nouns into suitable proper nouns.

Key Concepts

• A common noun names any general person, place or thing: boy, city, book.
• A proper noun names a specific person, place or thing: Lahore, Eid, Tuesday.
• Proper nouns always begin with a capital letter.
• Common nouns can often be made proper by adding a specific name.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Teacher writes 'school' and 'DPS School' on the board and asks what feels different about them.
2. Rule chart: common = general, no capital; proper = specific, capital letter — with three examples each.
3. Sentence hunt: students underline common nouns in red and circle proper nouns in blue.
4. Change drill: teacher gives 'a boy went to a city'; students make it specific with proper nouns.
5. Paragraph check: students find and fix two capital-letter mistakes in a short paragraph.

Classroom Activities

• Noun detective: teams find 10 proper nouns in today's textbook pages.
• Name chain: each student names a common noun, the next gives a proper noun for it.
• Fix the letter: cards with proper nouns written in small letters are corrected on the board.

Assessment Questions

1. Underline the proper nouns: My friend Sara lives in Karachi.
2. Write one proper noun for: month, river, book, festival.
3. Rewrite correctly: my birthday is in march.
4. Is 'teacher' common or proper? Why?

Homework

• Write 5 sentences; each must have one common noun and one proper noun.
• List 8 proper nouns from your daily life and write them with correct capitals.
