Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 11 – FA

Subject: Civics

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Meaning, Nature and Scope of Civics

Unit 2: The State: Meaning and Elements

Unit 3: Sovereignty: Meaning and Kinds

Unit 4: Forms of Government: Democracy and Dictatorship

Unit 5: Constitution: Meaning, Kinds and Importance

Unit 6: Salient Features of the 1973 Constitution

Unit 7: Fundamental Rights in Pakistan

Unit 8: Citizenship: Acquisition and Duties

DM

Unit 1: Meaning, Nature and Scope of Civics

Learning Objectives

• Define civics and explain its subject matter.

• Describe the relationship of civics with other social sciences.

• Explain why the study of civics is important for citizens.

Key Concepts

• Civics: the science of citizenship and civic life.

• Scope: rights, duties, state, government and society.

• Relation with history, economics and political science.

• Importance: creates responsible and aware citizens.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Meaning, Nature and Scope of Civics to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Meaning, Nature and Scope of Civics with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Meaning, Nature and Scope of Civics.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Meaning, Nature and Scope of Civics and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Meaning, Nature and Scope of Civics for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Define civics and describe its scope.

2. How is civics related to political science?

3. Why should every citizen study civics?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Meaning, Nature and Scope of Civics in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 2: The State: Meaning and Elements

Learning Objectives

• Define the state and explain its essential elements.

• Distinguish between state, society and government.

• Give examples of the four elements in Pakistan.

Key Concepts

• State: an organised political community with sovereignty.

• Four elements: population, territory, government, sovereignty.

• State vs society: state is political, society is social.

• State vs government: government is the agent of the state.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about The State: Meaning and Elements to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of The State: Meaning and Elements with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying The State: Meaning and Elements.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of The State: Meaning and Elements and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on The State: Meaning and Elements for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Define the state and explain its four elements.

2. Distinguish between state and government.

3. Which element of the state is most important? Why?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of The State: Meaning and Elements in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 3: Sovereignty: Meaning and Kinds

Learning Objectives

• Explain the meaning and characteristics of sovereignty.

• Describe the kinds of sovereignty with examples.

• Discuss the location of sovereignty in Pakistan.

Key Concepts

• Sovereignty: supreme, absolute power of the state.

• Characteristics: permanence, indivisibility, inalienability.

• Kinds: legal, political and popular sovereignty.

• In Pakistan sovereignty belongs to Allah; exercised by the people.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Sovereignty: Meaning and Kinds to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Sovereignty: Meaning and Kinds with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Sovereignty: Meaning and Kinds.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Sovereignty: Meaning and Kinds and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Sovereignty: Meaning and Kinds for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Define sovereignty and state its characteristics.

2. Distinguish between legal and political sovereignty.

3. Where does sovereignty lie in Pakistan?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Sovereignty: Meaning and Kinds in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 4: Forms of Government: Democracy and Dictatorship

Learning Objectives

• Classify governments into democratic and authoritarian forms.

• Explain the merits and demerits of democracy.

• Compare democracy with dictatorship.

Key Concepts

• Democracy: government of the people, by the people.

• Merits: equality, liberty, participation, accountability.

• Demerits: slow decisions, rule by the unwise majority.

• Dictatorship: concentration of power in one hand.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Forms of Government: Democracy and Dictatorship to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Forms of Government: Democracy and Dictatorship with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Forms of Government: Democracy and Dictatorship.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Forms of Government: Democracy and Dictatorship and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Forms of Government: Democracy and Dictatorship for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Define democracy and state its four merits.

2. What are the demerits of democracy?

3. Compare democracy and dictatorship.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Forms of Government: Democracy and Dictatorship in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 5: Constitution: Meaning, Kinds and Importance

Learning Objectives

• Define constitution and explain its necessity.

• Classify constitutions with examples.

• Explain the sources of a constitution.

Key Concepts

• Constitution: the supreme law defining state organs.

• Kinds: written/unwritten, rigid/flexible.

• Examples: USA (written), UK (unwritten).

• Importance: limits power, protects rights, ensures stability.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Constitution: Meaning, Kinds and Importance to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Constitution: Meaning, Kinds and Importance with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Constitution: Meaning, Kinds and Importance.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Constitution: Meaning, Kinds and Importance and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Constitution: Meaning, Kinds and Importance for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Define constitution and explain its importance.

2. Distinguish between written and unwritten constitutions.

3. What are the sources of a constitution?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Constitution: Meaning, Kinds and Importance in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 6: Salient Features of the 1973 Constitution

Learning Objectives

• List the salient features of Pakistan's constitution.

• Explain the federal and parliamentary system.

• Describe the Islamic provisions of the constitution.

Key Concepts

• Written, rigid constitution with 280 articles.

• Federal parliamentary system; bicameral legislature.

• Islamic provisions: no law repugnant to Quran and Sunnah.

• Fundamental rights guaranteed and protected by courts.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Salient Features of the 1973 Constitution to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Salient Features of the 1973 Constitution with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Salient Features of the 1973 Constitution.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Salient Features of the 1973 Constitution and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Salient Features of the 1973 Constitution for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. State five salient features of the 1973 Constitution.

2. What are the Islamic provisions of the constitution?

3. Explain the federal system of Pakistan.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Salient Features of the 1973 Constitution in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 7: Fundamental Rights in Pakistan

Learning Objectives

• List the fundamental rights in the constitution.

• Explain any four fundamental rights in detail.

• Describe how courts protect these rights.

Key Concepts

• Rights: life, liberty, equality, speech, religion, property.

• Rights are enforceable through High Courts and Supreme Court.

• Writs: habeas corpus, mandamus, certiorari.

• Balance: rights with reasonable restrictions for public order.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Fundamental Rights in Pakistan to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Fundamental Rights in Pakistan with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Fundamental Rights in Pakistan.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Fundamental Rights in Pakistan and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Fundamental Rights in Pakistan for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. List six fundamental rights in the 1973 Constitution.

2. How do courts enforce fundamental rights?

3. Why are reasonable restrictions placed on rights?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Fundamental Rights in Pakistan in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 8: Citizenship: Acquisition and Duties

Learning Objectives

• Explain how citizenship of Pakistan is acquired.

• Distinguish between citizen and alien.

• List the duties of a good citizen.

Key Concepts

• Citizenship by birth, descent and naturalisation.

• Citizen vs alien: political rights belong to citizens.

• Duties: loyalty, obedience to law, payment of taxes, voting.

• Good citizenship builds a strong nation.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Citizenship: Acquisition and Duties to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Citizenship: Acquisition and Duties with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Citizenship: Acquisition and Duties.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Citizenship: Acquisition and Duties and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Citizenship: Acquisition and Duties for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. How can a person become a citizen of Pakistan?

2. Distinguish between a citizen and an alien.

3. State five duties of a good citizen.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Citizenship: Acquisition and Duties in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)