Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 11 – FA

Subject: Punjabi

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Introduction to the Punjabi Language

Unit 2: Lok Geet (Folk Songs)

Unit 3: Poetry of Baba Farid

Unit 4: Kafis (Sufi poetry)

Unit 5: Introduction to Heer (a classical tale)

Unit 6: Prose: The Punjabi Afsana (Short Story)

Unit 7: Grammar: Kinds of Sentences (Jumla)

Unit 8: Essay Writing (Mazmoon Nawesi)

DM

Unit 1: Introduction to the Punjabi Language

Learning Objectives

• Describe the origin and area of the Punjabi language.

• Explain the importance of Punjabi as a mother tongue.

• Identify the main dialects of Punjabi.

Key Concepts

• Punjabi: language of the five rivers region.

• Scripts: Shahmukhi in Pakistan, Gurmukhi in India.

• Major dialects: Majhi, Malwai, Pothohari, Saraiki link.

• Punjabi as a carrier of folk culture and Sufi thought.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Introduction to the Punjabi Language to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Introduction to the Punjabi Language with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Introduction to the Punjabi Language.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Introduction to the Punjabi Language and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Introduction to the Punjabi Language for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Describe the area where Punjabi is spoken.

2. What are the two scripts of Punjabi?

3. Why is the mother tongue important in education?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Introduction to the Punjabi Language in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 2: Lok Geet (Folk Songs)

Learning Objectives

• Define lok geet and state its features.

• Classify folk songs: mahiya, tappa, wedding songs.

• Explain the cultural value of folk songs.

Key Concepts

• Lok geet: songs of the people, no single author.

• Forms: mahiya, dhola, tappa, suhag, ghorian.

• Themes: love, separation, harvest, village life.

• Folk songs preserve history and values of the people.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Lok Geet (Folk Songs) to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Lok Geet (Folk Songs) with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Lok Geet (Folk Songs).

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Lok Geet (Folk Songs) and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Lok Geet (Folk Songs) for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Define lok geet and state its three features.

2. Name four forms of Punjabi folk songs.

3. What is the cultural importance of folk songs?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Lok Geet (Folk Songs) in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 3: Poetry of Baba Farid

Learning Objectives

• Read the shalok of Baba Farid with expression.

• Explain the Sufi message of his poetry.

• Identify the themes of humility and detachment.

Key Concepts

• Baba Farid: the first great Punjabi Sufi poet.

• Theme: love of God, humility, service of humanity.

• His shaloks included in the Guru Granth Sahib.

• Simple language carrying deep spiritual meaning.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Poetry of Baba Farid to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Poetry of Baba Farid with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Poetry of Baba Farid.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Poetry of Baba Farid and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Poetry of Baba Farid for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Who was Baba Farid? State his contribution.

2. Explain the message of any one shalok.

3. What is the central theme of Farid's poetry?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Poetry of Baba Farid in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 4: Kafis (Sufi poetry)

Learning Objectives

• Read a kafi with rhythm.

• Explain the symbols used in his kafis.

• Describe his concept of divine love.

Key Concepts

• A saint-poet of Lahore.

• Kafi: a lyrical form sung in classical raags.

• Symbols: the beloved, the spinning wheel, the river.

• Love as a path to spiritual union with God.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Kafis (Sufi poetry) to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Kafis (Sufi poetry) with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Kafis (Sufi poetry).

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Kafis (Sufi poetry) and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Kafis (Sufi poetry) for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What is a kafi? Describe its features.

2. Explain the symbols in Sufi poetry.

3. What is his concept of divine love?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Kafis (Sufi poetry) in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 5: Introduction to Heer (a classical tale)

Learning Objectives

• Introduce the classical tale of Heer.

• Explain the story of Heer Ranjha briefly.

• Identify the moral and social themes of the qissa.

Key Concepts

• A great classical Punjabi poet.

• Heer: a tragic love story and a mirror of Punjab.

• Themes: true love, social injustice, spiritual allegory.

• Qissa form: long narrative poem in baint stanzas.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Introduction to Heer (a classical tale) to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Introduction to Heer (a classical tale) with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Introduction to Heer (a classical tale).

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Introduction to Heer (a classical tale) and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Introduction to Heer (a classical tale) for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What is the tale of Heer about? State its fame.

2. Narrate the story of Heer Ranjha briefly.

3. What social themes appear in Heer?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Introduction to Heer (a classical tale) in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 6: Prose: The Punjabi Afsana (Short Story)

Learning Objectives

• Define the afsana and its elements.

• Summarise a Punjabi short story.

• Analyse the character of the hero.

Key Concepts

• Afsana: a short prose narrative with one plot.

• Elements: plot, character, setting, theme.

• Village life as the favourite setting of Punjabi stories.

• Realism and moral purpose in Punjabi fiction.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Prose: The Punjabi Afsana (Short Story) to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Prose: The Punjabi Afsana (Short Story) with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Prose: The Punjabi Afsana (Short Story).

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Prose: The Punjabi Afsana (Short Story) and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Prose: The Punjabi Afsana (Short Story) for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Define afsana and state its elements.

2. Summarise the prescribed short story.

3. Describe the main character with examples.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Prose: The Punjabi Afsana (Short Story) in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 7: Grammar: Kinds of Sentences (Jumla)

Learning Objectives

• Define jumla and identify its parts.

• Classify sentences: simple, compound, complex.

• Construct each kind of sentence correctly.

Key Concepts

• Jumla: a group of words giving complete sense.

• Sada jumla: one subject, one predicate.

• Murakkab jumla: joined by conjunctions.

• Mukhtalif jumla: main and subordinate clauses.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Grammar: Kinds of Sentences (Jumla) to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Grammar: Kinds of Sentences (Jumla) with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Grammar: Kinds of Sentences (Jumla).

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Grammar: Kinds of Sentences (Jumla) and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Grammar: Kinds of Sentences (Jumla) for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Define jumla with an example.

2. Classify the given sentences.

3. Write one sentence of each kind.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Grammar: Kinds of Sentences (Jumla) in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 8: Essay Writing (Mazmoon Nawesi)

Learning Objectives

• Plan an essay with an outline.

• Write a complete essay in Punjabi.

• Use proverbs and idioms appropriately.

Key Concepts

• Structure: introduction, body, conclusion.

• Outline keeps ideas in order.

• Punjabi idioms enrich the essay.

• Topics: village life, festivals, great personalities.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Essay Writing (Mazmoon Nawesi) to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Essay Writing (Mazmoon Nawesi) with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Essay Writing (Mazmoon Nawesi).

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Essay Writing (Mazmoon Nawesi) and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Essay Writing (Mazmoon Nawesi) for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Write an outline for an essay on the village fair.

2. Write a complete essay on 'My Mother'.

3. Improve the weak introduction of the given essay.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Essay Writing (Mazmoon Nawesi) in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)