Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 11 – FA

Subject: Urdu

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Hamd: Poetic Praise of Allah

Unit 2: Naat: Love for the Holy Prophet (PBUH)

Unit 3: Short Story: Eidgah – Summary and Theme

Unit 4: Essay: a great Muslim educationist and reformer – Services

Unit 5: Ghazal: Mir and Ghalib – Explanation

Unit 6: Grammar: Kinds of Noun (Ism)

Unit 7: Letter and Application Writing

Unit 8: Precis Writing (Khulasa Nawesi)

DM

Unit 1: Hamd: Poetic Praise of Allah

Learning Objectives

• Read the Hamd with correct rhythm and expression.

• Explain the central theme of divine praise in simple words.

• Identify the poet's feelings of devotion and humility.

Key Concepts

• Hamd: poetry written in praise of Allah Almighty.

• Theme: Allah's power, mercy and blessings on mankind.

• Poetic devices: praise, imagery and emotional appeal.

• The poet's expression of gratitude and submission.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Hamd: Poetic Praise of Allah to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Hamd: Poetic Praise of Allah with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Hamd: Poetic Praise of Allah.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Hamd: Poetic Praise of Allah and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Hamd: Poetic Praise of Allah for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What is the central theme of the Hamd?

2. Explain any one stanza in your own words.

3. Which qualities of Allah does the poet mention?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Hamd: Poetic Praise of Allah in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 2: Naat: Love for the Holy Prophet (PBUH)

Learning Objectives

• Read the Naat with love and proper expression.

• Explain the poet's devotion to the Holy Prophet (PBUH).

• Identify the qualities of the Prophet (PBUH) praised in the poem.

Key Concepts

• Naat: poetry in praise of the Holy Prophet (PBUH).

• Theme: love, respect and devotion for the Prophet (PBUH).

• Mention of the Prophet's (PBUH) mercy for mankind.

• Emotional and spiritual tone of the poem.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Naat: Love for the Holy Prophet (PBUH) to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Naat: Love for the Holy Prophet (PBUH) with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Naat: Love for the Holy Prophet (PBUH).

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Naat: Love for the Holy Prophet (PBUH) and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Naat: Love for the Holy Prophet (PBUH) for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What feelings does the poet express in the Naat?

2. Which qualities of the Prophet (PBUH) are praised?

3. Explain two couplets of the Naat.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Naat: Love for the Holy Prophet (PBUH) in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 3: Short Story: Eidgah – Summary and Theme

Learning Objectives

• Narrate the story of Eidgah in your own words.

• Explain the theme of love and sacrifice.

Key Concepts

• Theme: a child's selfless love for his grandmother.

• The Eid fair as a picture of rural life.

• Premchand's simple and touching narrative style.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Short Story: Eidgah – Summary and Theme to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Short Story: Eidgah – Summary and Theme with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Short Story: Eidgah – Summary and Theme.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Short Story: Eidgah – Summary and Theme and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Short Story: Eidgah – Summary and Theme for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Summarise the story of Eidgah.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Short Story: Eidgah – Summary and Theme in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 4: Essay: a great Muslim educationist and reformer – Services

Learning Objectives

• Describe the great educationist's services for Muslim education.

• Explain the background of the Aligarh Movement.

• Write the main points of the essay from memory.

Key Concepts

• The great educationist: a reformer who awakened Muslims after 1857.

• Establishment of MAO College, Aligarh.

• Emphasis on modern education along with Islamic values.

• The essayist's respectful and analytical tone.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Essay: a great Muslim educationist and reformer – Services to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Essay: a great Muslim educationist and reformer – Services with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Essay: a great Muslim educationist and reformer – Services.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Essay: a great Muslim educationist and reformer – Services and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Essay: a great Muslim educationist and reformer – Services for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What services did the great educationist render for education?

2. What was the aim of the Aligarh Movement?

3. Write the summary of the essay in your own words.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Essay: a great Muslim educationist and reformer – Services in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 5: Ghazal: Mir and Ghalib – Explanation

Learning Objectives

• Read the ghazals with correct pronunciation.

• Explain two couplets of each ghazal.

• Compare the styles of Mir and Ghalib briefly.

Key Concepts

• Ghazal: a poetic form of independent couplets.

• Mir: simplicity, pain of love and delicate expression.

• Ghalib: depth of thought and philosophical tone.

• Common devices: metaphor, irony and wordplay.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Ghazal: Mir and Ghalib – Explanation to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Ghazal: Mir and Ghalib – Explanation with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Ghazal: Mir and Ghalib – Explanation.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Ghazal: Mir and Ghalib – Explanation and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Ghazal: Mir and Ghalib – Explanation for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Explain any two couplets of Mir's ghazal.

2. Explain any two couplets of Ghalib's ghazal.

3. State one difference between the styles of Mir and Ghalib.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Ghazal: Mir and Ghalib – Explanation in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 6: Grammar: Kinds of Noun (Ism)

Learning Objectives

• Define Ism and identify it in sentences.

• Classify nouns into proper, common and abstract kinds.

• Use each kind of noun in original sentences.

Key Concepts

• Ism: a word naming a person, place or thing.

• Ism-e-Marfah: specific names; Ism-e-Nakrah: general names.

• Ism-e-Zaat, Ism-e-Sifat and Ism-e-Masdar.

• Identification exercises from the textbook.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Grammar: Kinds of Noun (Ism) to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Grammar: Kinds of Noun (Ism) with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Grammar: Kinds of Noun (Ism).

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Grammar: Kinds of Noun (Ism) and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Grammar: Kinds of Noun (Ism) for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Define Ism with two examples.

2. Classify the underlined nouns in the given sentences.

3. Write two sentences using Ism-e-Sifat.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Grammar: Kinds of Noun (Ism) in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 7: Letter and Application Writing

Learning Objectives

• Write a personal letter in correct format.

• Draft an application to the principal.

• Use appropriate and polite Urdu expressions.

Key Concepts

• Parts of a letter: address, date, greeting, body, closing.

• Difference between letters and applications.

• Applications: leave, fee concession, character certificate.

• Polite and formal Urdu vocabulary.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Letter and Application Writing to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Letter and Application Writing with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Letter and Application Writing.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Letter and Application Writing and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Letter and Application Writing for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Write a letter to your friend inviting him to your village.

2. Write an application for fee concession.

3. Correct the format errors in the given application.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Letter and Application Writing in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 8: Precis Writing (Khulasa Nawesi)

Learning Objectives

• Read a passage and grasp its main idea.

• Write a precis one-third the length of the original.

• Give a suitable title to the precis.

Key Concepts

• Precis: a brief, clear summary in your own words.

• Rules: no examples, no repetition, no personal opinion.

• Steps: read, underline main points, draft, revise.

• Suitable and brief titles.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Precis Writing (Khulasa Nawesi) to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Precis Writing (Khulasa Nawesi) with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Precis Writing (Khulasa Nawesi).

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Precis Writing (Khulasa Nawesi) and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Precis Writing (Khulasa Nawesi) for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Write a precis of the given passage.

2. Give a suitable title to your precis.

3. Point out the faults in the given precis.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Precis Writing (Khulasa Nawesi) in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)