Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 12 – FA

Subject: Civics

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Local Government in Pakistan

Unit 2: The Federal Legislature: Parliament

Unit 3: The Executive and the Judiciary

Unit 4: Political Parties in Pakistan

Unit 5: Elections and the Electoral System

Unit 6: Public Opinion and the Press

Unit 7: International Relations: Meaning and Importance

Unit 8: The United Nations and Its Organs

DM

Unit 1: Local Government in Pakistan

Learning Objectives

• Explain the meaning and importance of local government.

• Describe the structure of local bodies in Pakistan.

• State the functions of a union council.

Key Concepts

• Local government: administration at district and village level.

• Structure: union council, tehsil/town, district government.

• Functions: sanitation, water, streets, primary health.

• Importance: democracy at the doorstep of citizens.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Local Government in Pakistan to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Local Government in Pakistan with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Local Government in Pakistan.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Local Government in Pakistan and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Local Government in Pakistan for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What is local government? Explain its importance.

2. Describe the three tiers of local government.

3. State five functions of a union council.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Local Government in Pakistan in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 2: The Federal Legislature: Parliament

Learning Objectives

• Describe the composition of Pakistan's Parliament.

• Explain the functions of the National Assembly.

• State the role of the Senate in the federation.

Key Concepts

• Bicameral Parliament: National Assembly and Senate.

• National Assembly: 336 members, legislation and budget.

• Senate: 100 members, equal provincial representation.

• Law-making process: bill, debate, passage, assent.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about The Federal Legislature: Parliament to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of The Federal Legislature: Parliament with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying The Federal Legislature: Parliament.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of The Federal Legislature: Parliament and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on The Federal Legislature: Parliament for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Describe the composition of the Parliament.

2. What are the functions of the National Assembly?

3. Explain the law-making process briefly.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of The Federal Legislature: Parliament in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 3: The Executive and the Judiciary

Learning Objectives

• Explain the powers of the President and Prime Minister.

• Describe the structure of courts in Pakistan.

• Explain the independence of the judiciary.

Key Concepts

• President: head of state; PM: chief executive.

• Federal cabinet aids and advises the President.

• Courts: Supreme Court, High Courts, subordinate courts.

• Independent judiciary protects rights and the constitution.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about The Executive and the Judiciary to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of The Executive and the Judiciary with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying The Executive and the Judiciary.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of The Executive and the Judiciary and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on The Executive and the Judiciary for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Distinguish between the powers of President and PM.

2. Describe the court structure of Pakistan.

3. Why is independence of judiciary important?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of The Executive and the Judiciary in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 4: Political Parties in Pakistan

Learning Objectives

• Explain the role of political parties in democracy.

• Name the major political parties of Pakistan.

• Describe the functions of opposition parties.

Key Concepts

• Parties: organised groups contesting elections for power.

• Functions: interest aggregation, leadership training, accountability.

• Opposition: criticism, alternative policies, check on government.

• Party system: multi-party system in Pakistan.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Political Parties in Pakistan to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Political Parties in Pakistan with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Political Parties in Pakistan.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Political Parties in Pakistan and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Political Parties in Pakistan for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What is the role of political parties in democracy?

2. State four functions of political parties.

3. What is the importance of the opposition?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Political Parties in Pakistan in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 5: Elections and the Electoral System

Learning Objectives

• Explain the importance of free and fair elections.

• Describe the election process in Pakistan.

• State the qualifications of a voter and a candidate.

Key Concepts

• Election: the lifeblood of democracy.

• Election Commission: conducts free and fair polls.

• Voter: citizen, 18 years, registered in the constituency.

• Secret ballot and its importance.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Elections and the Electoral System to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Elections and the Electoral System with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Elections and the Electoral System.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Elections and the Electoral System and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Elections and the Electoral System for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Why are elections called the lifeblood of democracy?

2. Describe the election process step by step.

3. State the qualifications of a voter.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Elections and the Electoral System in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 6: Public Opinion and the Press

Learning Objectives

• Define public opinion and explain its formation.

• Describe the role of press and media.

• Explain the importance of a free press.

Key Concepts

• Public opinion: collective views of citizens on issues.

• Agencies: press, TV, social media, political parties.

• Free press: the fourth pillar of democracy.

• Responsible journalism vs propaganda.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Public Opinion and the Press to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Public Opinion and the Press with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Public Opinion and the Press.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Public Opinion and the Press and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Public Opinion and the Press for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Define public opinion. How is it formed?

2. What is the role of media in democracy?

3. Distinguish between responsible journalism and propaganda.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Public Opinion and the Press in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 7: International Relations: Meaning and Importance

Learning Objectives

• Explain the meaning of international relations.

• Describe Pakistan's foreign policy objectives.

• State the importance of good relations with neighbours.

Key Concepts

• International relations: dealings between sovereign states.

• Pakistan's policy: peace, non-alignment, Muslim unity.

• Relations with China, Iran, Afghanistan and India.

• Diplomacy as the art of peaceful negotiation.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about International Relations: Meaning and Importance to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of International Relations: Meaning and Importance with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying International Relations: Meaning and Importance.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of International Relations: Meaning and Importance and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on International Relations: Meaning and Importance for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What are the objectives of Pakistan's foreign policy?

2. Why are good relations with neighbours important?

3. Define diplomacy and explain its tools.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of International Relations: Meaning and Importance in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 8: The United Nations and Its Organs

Learning Objectives

• Explain the aims of the United Nations.

• Describe the six principal organs of the UN.

• State Pakistan's role in the UN.

Key Concepts

• UN founded in 1945 to keep world peace.

• Organs: General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, ICJ and others.

• Security Council: 5 permanent members with veto.

• Pakistan: active member, peacekeeping contributions.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about The United Nations and Its Organs to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of The United Nations and Its Organs with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying The United Nations and Its Organs.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of The United Nations and Its Organs and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on The United Nations and Its Organs for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. State the aims of the United Nations.

2. Describe the functions of the Security Council.

3. What is Pakistan's contribution to the UN?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of The United Nations and Its Organs in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)