Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 12 – FA

Subject: Punjabi

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Poetry of Sultan Bahu

Unit 2: Sufi Kafis

Unit 3: Modern Punjabi Nazm

Unit 4: Punjabi Drama: An Introduction

Unit 5: Grammar: Gender and Number

Unit 6: Letter and Application Writing

Unit 7: Punjabi Journalism (Sahafat)

Unit 8: A Brief History of Punjabi Literature

DM

Unit 1: Poetry of Sultan Bahu

Learning Objectives

• Read the abyat of Sultan Bahu with expression.

• Explain his message of divine love.

• Identify the symbols in his poetry.

Key Concepts

• Sultan Bahu: the mystic of Shorkot, master of the bait.

• Bait: a short, powerful verse form.

• Theme: Ishq-e-Haqiqi, annihilation of the self.

• Symbols: the beloved, wine, the moth and the flame.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Poetry of Sultan Bahu to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Poetry of Sultan Bahu with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Poetry of Sultan Bahu.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Poetry of Sultan Bahu and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Poetry of Sultan Bahu for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Who was Sultan Bahu? Describe his poetry.

2. Explain the message of any one bait.

3. What symbols does he use for divine love?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Poetry of Sultan Bahu in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

DM

Unit 2: Sufi Kafis

Learning Objectives

• Read a kafi with rhythm.

• Explain his protest against religious hypocrisy.

• Describe his message of human unity.

Key Concepts

• A bold Sufi voice of Kasur.

• Attack on mullahs and false piety.

• Message: one humanity beyond caste and creed.

• Famous kafi: 'Bullah ki jana main kaun'.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Sufi Kafis to activate prior knowledge.
2. Present the core ideas of Sufi Kafis with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.
3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.
4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Sufi Kafis.
5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Sufi Kafis and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Sufi Kafis for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What is the message of Sufi poetry to society?
2. Explain the kafi 'Bullah ki jana main kaun'.
3. How does he criticise religious hypocrisy?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Sufi Kafis in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 3: Modern Punjabi Nazm

Learning Objectives

• Read a modern nazm with understanding.

• Identify modern themes: city life, partition, hope.

• Compare classical and modern Punjabi poetry.

Key Concepts

• Modern nazm: free from classical forms.

• Themes: urban life, social change, national spirit.

• New symbols from daily modern life.

• Poets: famous Punjabi poets.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Modern Punjabi Nazm to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Modern Punjabi Nazm with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Modern Punjabi Nazm.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Modern Punjabi Nazm and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Modern Punjabi Nazm for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. What are the themes of modern Punjabi nazm?

2. Compare classical and modern Punjabi poetry.

3. Explain any one stanza of the prescribed nazm.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Modern Punjabi Nazm in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 4: Punjabi Drama: An Introduction

Learning Objectives

• Define drama and its elements.

• Describe the history of Punjabi stage drama.

• Explain the prescribed one-act play.

Key Concepts

• Drama: story in dialogue for the stage.

• Elements: plot, character, dialogue, setting.

• Punjabi folk theatre: naqal, bhand.

• Social reform as a theme of modern Punjabi drama.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Punjabi Drama: An Introduction to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Punjabi Drama: An Introduction with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Punjabi Drama: An Introduction.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Punjabi Drama: An Introduction and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Punjabi Drama: An Introduction for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Define drama and state its elements.

2. Describe Punjabi folk theatre briefly.

3. Explain the theme of the prescribed play.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Punjabi Drama: An Introduction in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 5: Grammar: Gender and Number

Learning Objectives

• Distinguish masculine and feminine nouns.

• Form plurals from singular nouns.

• Use correct agreement in sentences.

Key Concepts

• Tazkeer: masculine; Tanis: feminine.

• Rules of forming feminine from masculine.

• Wahid: singular; Jama: plural forms.

• Agreement of adjective and verb with the noun.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Grammar: Gender and Number to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Grammar: Gender and Number with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Grammar: Gender and Number.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Grammar: Gender and Number and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Grammar: Gender and Number for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Write the feminine of the given nouns.

2. Write the plural of the given singular nouns.

3. Correct the agreement errors in the sentences.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Grammar: Gender and Number in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 6: Letter and Application Writing

Learning Objectives

• Write a personal letter in Punjabi.

• Draft an application to the principal.

• Use polite and correct expressions.

Key Concepts

• Parts of a letter: address, date, greeting, body.

• Applications: leave, fee concession, certificates.

• Difference between formal and informal letters.

• Polite vocabulary for requests.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Letter and Application Writing to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Letter and Application Writing with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Letter and Application Writing.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Letter and Application Writing and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Letter and Application Writing for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Write a letter to your uncle in Punjabi.

2. Write an application for two days' leave.

3. Correct the format errors in the given letter.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Letter and Application Writing in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 7: Punjabi Journalism (Sahafat)

Learning Objectives

• Describe the history of Punjabi journalism.

• Explain the parts of a newspaper.

• Write a short news report.

Key Concepts

• First Punjabi papers and their role in awakening.

• Parts: news, editorial, features, letters.

• Qualities of a good news report: who, what, when, where.

• Responsible journalism and ethics.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about Punjabi Journalism (Sahafat) to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of Punjabi Journalism (Sahafat) with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying Punjabi Journalism (Sahafat).

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of Punjabi Journalism (Sahafat) and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on Punjabi Journalism (Sahafat) for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Describe the history of Punjabi journalism.

2. What are the parts of a newspaper?

3. Write a short report on a school event.

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of Punjabi Journalism (Sahafat) in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)

Unit 8: A Brief History of Punjabi Literature

Learning Objectives

• Name the periods of Punjabi literature.

• List major poets of each period.

• Explain the contribution of Sufi poets.

Key Concepts

• Early period: Farid, the foundation.

• Classical period: famous Sufi poets.

• Modern period: new forms and themes.

• Sufi poets gave Punjabi its spiritual depth.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they already know about A Brief History of Punjabi Literature to activate prior knowledge.

2. Present the core ideas of A Brief History of Punjabi Literature with clear board notes, definitions and real-life examples.

3. Explain each key concept in sequence, using questions to check understanding at every stage.

4. Guided practice: short written exercises and class discussion applying A Brief History of Punjabi Literature.

5. Recap the main points, clear remaining doubts and close with a quick oral quiz.

Classroom Activities

• Pair activity: students discuss the key ideas of A Brief History of Punjabi Literature and present a two-minute summary to the class.

• Group task: prepare a wall chart or mind map on A Brief History of Punjabi Literature for classroom display.

Assessment Questions

1. Name the three periods of Punjabi literature.

2. List two poets of each period.

3. What is the contribution of Sufi poets?

Homework

• Write a one-page summary of A Brief History of Punjabi Literature in your notebook.

• Attempt the exercise questions given at the end of the chapter.

Time Allocation

2 periods (80 minutes)