Lesson Planning

Complete Lesson Plan Book

Class: Class 11 – FSc Pre-Medical

Subject: English

Medium: English

Academic Year 2026-27

This book is prepared as a teaching guide for teachers.

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Reading Comprehension Strategies

Unit 2: Prose Lesson: Character and Conduct

Unit 3: Grammar: Tenses

Unit 4: Active and Passive Voice

Unit 5: Direct and Indirect Speech

Unit 6: Vocabulary Building

Unit 7: Letter and Application Writing

Unit 8: Story Writing

Unit 9: Precis Writing

Unit 10: Pair of Words and Idioms

DM

Unit 1: Reading Comprehension Strategies

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain skimming in the context of Reading Comprehension Strategies.

• Differentiate between scanning and main idea with suitable examples.

• Solve conceptual problems related to inference accurately.

• Apply the ideas of Reading Comprehension Strategies to everyday situations involving vocabulary in context.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of skimming.

• Important properties, types and examples of scanning.

• Relationship between main idea and inference.

• Practical applications of Reading Comprehension Strategies, especially vocabulary in context.

• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Reading Comprehension Strategies.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Reading Comprehension Strategies with a daily-life example.
2. Explain skimming on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss scanning and main idea using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on inference.
5. Solve an exercise question on vocabulary in context together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Reading Comprehension Strategies.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare scanning with main idea.

• Board activity: solve a question on inference in pairs.

• Quick quiz on the key terms of Reading Comprehension Strategies.

Assessment Questions

1. Define skimming.
2. Differentiate between scanning and main idea.
3. Explain with an example: inference.
4. Write a short note on vocabulary in context.

Homework

• Read Reading Comprehension Strategies from the book and solve the exercise questions.

• Prepare short notes on skimming and scanning.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 2: Prose Lesson: Character and Conduct

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain theme in the context of Prose Lesson: Character and Conduct.

• Differentiate between character analysis and moral lesson with suitable examples.

• Solve conceptual problems related to summary writing accurately.

• Apply the ideas of Prose Lesson: Character and Conduct to everyday situations involving difficult words.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of theme.

• Important properties, types and examples of character analysis.

• Relationship between moral lesson and summary writing.

• Practical applications of Prose Lesson: Character and Conduct, especially difficult words.

• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Prose Lesson: Character and Conduct.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Prose Lesson: Character and Conduct with a daily-life example.
2. Explain theme on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss character analysis and moral lesson using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on summary writing.
5. Solve an exercise question on difficult words together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Prose Lesson: Character and Conduct.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare character analysis with moral lesson.

• Board activity: solve a question on summary writing in pairs.

• Quick quiz on the key terms of Prose Lesson: Character and Conduct.

Assessment Questions

1. Define theme.
2. Differentiate between character analysis and moral lesson.
3. Explain with an example: summary writing.
4. Write a short note on difficult words.

Homework

• Read Prose Lesson: Character and Conduct from the book and solve the exercise questions.

• Prepare short notes on theme and character analysis.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 3: Grammar: Tenses

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain present tenses in the context of Grammar: Tenses.

• Differentiate between past tenses and future tenses with suitable examples.

• Solve conceptual problems related to tense consistency accurately.

• Apply the ideas of Grammar: Tenses to everyday situations involving error correction.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of present tenses.

• Important properties, types and examples of past tenses.

• Relationship between future tenses and tense consistency.

• Practical applications of Grammar: Tenses, especially error correction.

• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Grammar: Tenses.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Grammar: Tenses with a daily-life example.
2. Explain present tenses on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss past tenses and future tenses using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on tense consistency.
5. Solve an exercise question on error correction together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Grammar: Tenses.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare past tenses with future tenses.

• Board activity: solve a question on tense consistency in pairs.

• Quick quiz on the key terms of Grammar: Tenses.

Assessment Questions

1. Define present tenses.
2. Differentiate between past tenses and future tenses.
3. Explain with an example: tense consistency.
4. Write a short note on error correction.

Homework

• Read Grammar: Tenses from the book and solve the exercise questions.

• Prepare short notes on present tenses and past tenses.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 4: Active and Passive Voice

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain voice change rules in the context of Active and Passive Voice.

• Differentiate between tense-wise transformation and imperative sentences with suitable examples.

• Solve conceptual problems related to interrogative sentences accurately.

• Apply the ideas of Active and Passive Voice to everyday situations involving practice exercises.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of voice change rules.

• Important properties, types and examples of tense-wise transformation.

• Relationship between imperative sentences and interrogative sentences.

• Practical applications of Active and Passive Voice, especially practice exercises.

• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Active and Passive Voice.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Active and Passive Voice with a daily-life example.
2. Explain voice change rules on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss tense-wise transformation and imperative sentences using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on interrogative sentences.
5. Solve an exercise question on practice exercises together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Active and Passive Voice.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare tense-wise transformation with imperative sentences.

• Board activity: solve a question on interrogative sentences in pairs.

• Quick quiz on the key terms of Active and Passive Voice.

Assessment Questions

1. Define voice change rules.
2. Differentiate between tense-wise transformation and imperative sentences.
3. Explain with an example: interrogative sentences.
4. Write a short note on practice exercises.

Homework

• Read Active and Passive Voice from the book and solve the exercise questions.

• Prepare short notes on voice change rules and tense-wise transformation.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 5: Direct and Indirect Speech

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain reporting verbs in the context of Direct and Indirect Speech.

• Differentiate between tense shift and pronoun change with suitable examples.

• Solve conceptual problems related to time expressions accurately.

• Apply the ideas of Direct and Indirect Speech to everyday situations involving statements and questions.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of reporting verbs.

• Important properties, types and examples of tense shift.

• Relationship between pronoun change and time expressions.

• Practical applications of Direct and Indirect Speech, especially statements and questions.

• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Direct and Indirect Speech.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Direct and Indirect Speech with a daily-life example.
2. Explain reporting verbs on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss tense shift and pronoun change using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on time expressions.
5. Solve an exercise question on statements and questions together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Direct and Indirect Speech.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare tense shift with pronoun change.

• Board activity: solve a question on time expressions in pairs.

• Quick quiz on the key terms of Direct and Indirect Speech.

Assessment Questions

1. Define reporting verbs.
2. Differentiate between tense shift and pronoun change.
3. Explain with an example: time expressions.
4. Write a short note on statements and questions.

Homework

• Read Direct and Indirect Speech from the book and solve the exercise questions.

• Prepare short notes on reporting verbs and tense shift.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 6: Vocabulary Building

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain synonyms in the context of Vocabulary Building.
• Differentiate between antonyms and word formation with suitable examples.
• Solve conceptual problems related to prefixes and suffixes accurately.
• Apply the ideas of Vocabulary Building to everyday situations involving contextual usage.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of synonyms.
• Important properties, types and examples of antonyms.
• Relationship between word formation and prefixes and suffixes.
• Practical applications of Vocabulary Building, especially contextual usage.
• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Vocabulary Building.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Vocabulary Building with a daily-life example.
2. Explain synonyms on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss antonyms and word formation using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on prefixes and suffixes.
5. Solve an exercise question on contextual usage together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Vocabulary Building.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare antonyms with word formation.
• Board activity: solve a question on prefixes and suffixes in pairs.
• Quick quiz on the key terms of Vocabulary Building.

Assessment Questions

1. Define synonyms.
2. Differentiate between antonyms and word formation.
3. Explain with an example: prefixes and suffixes.
4. Write a short note on contextual usage.

Homework

• Read Vocabulary Building from the book and solve the exercise questions.
• Prepare short notes on synonyms and antonyms.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 7: Letter and Application Writing

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain formal letters in the context of Letter and Application Writing.
• Differentiate between applications and format and layout with suitable examples.
• Solve conceptual problems related to tone and style accurately.
• Apply the ideas of Letter and Application Writing to everyday situations involving practice.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of formal letters.
• Important properties, types and examples of applications.
• Relationship between format and layout and tone and style.
• Practical applications of Letter and Application Writing, especially practice.
• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Letter and Application Writing.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Letter and Application Writing with a daily-life example.
2. Explain formal letters on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss applications and format and layout using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on tone and style.
5. Solve an exercise question on practice together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Letter and Application Writing.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare applications with format and layout.
• Board activity: solve a question on tone and style in pairs.
• Quick quiz on the key terms of Letter and Application Writing.

Assessment Questions

1. Define formal letters.
2. Differentiate between applications and format and layout.
3. Explain with an example: tone and style.
4. Write a short note on practice.

Homework

• Read Letter and Application Writing from the book and solve the exercise questions.
• Prepare short notes on formal letters and applications.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 8: Story Writing

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain plot development in the context of Story Writing.
• Differentiate between characters and moral with suitable examples.
• Solve conceptual problems related to dialogue accurately.
• Apply the ideas of Story Writing to everyday situations involving narrative techniques.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of plot development.
• Important properties, types and examples of characters.
• Relationship between moral and dialogue.
• Practical applications of Story Writing, especially narrative techniques.
• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Story Writing.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Story Writing with a daily-life example.
2. Explain plot development on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss characters and moral using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on dialogue.
5. Solve an exercise question on narrative techniques together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Story Writing.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare characters with moral.
• Board activity: solve a question on dialogue in pairs.
• Quick quiz on the key terms of Story Writing.

Assessment Questions

1. Define plot development.
2. Differentiate between characters and moral.
3. Explain with an example: dialogue.
4. Write a short note on narrative techniques.

Homework

• Read Story Writing from the book and solve the exercise questions.
• Prepare short notes on plot development and characters.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 9: Precis Writing

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain reading the passage in the context of Precis Writing.
• Differentiate between identifying main points and drafting with suitable examples.
• Solve conceptual problems related to title accurately.
• Apply the ideas of Precis Writing to everyday situations involving word limit.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of reading the passage.
• Important properties, types and examples of identifying main points.
• Relationship between drafting and title.
• Practical applications of Precis Writing, especially word limit.
• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Precis Writing.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Precis Writing with a daily-life example.
2. Explain reading the passage on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss identifying main points and drafting using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on title.
5. Solve an exercise question on word limit together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Precis Writing.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare identifying main points with drafting.
• Board activity: solve a question on title in pairs.
• Quick quiz on the key terms of Precis Writing.

Assessment Questions

1. Define reading the passage.
2. Differentiate between identifying main points and drafting.
3. Explain with an example: title.
4. Write a short note on word limit.

Homework

• Read Precis Writing from the book and solve the exercise questions.
• Prepare short notes on reading the passage and identifying main points.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each

Unit 10: Pair of Words and Idioms

Learning Objectives

• Define and explain confusing pairs in the context of Pair of Words and Idioms.
• Differentiate between common idioms and usage in sentences with suitable examples.
• Solve conceptual problems related to meanings accurately.
• Apply the ideas of Pair of Words and Idioms to everyday situations involving practice.

Key Concepts

• Meaning, definition and scope of confusing pairs.
• Important properties, types and examples of common idioms.
• Relationship between usage in sentences and meanings.
• Practical applications of Pair of Words and Idioms, especially practice.
• Key terms and a summary of the main points of Pair of Words and Idioms.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recap the previous lesson and introduce Pair of Words and Idioms with a daily-life example.
2. Explain confusing pairs on the board with definitions and clear diagrams.
3. Discuss common idioms and usage in sentences using simple, relatable examples.
4. Involve the students through short questions on meanings.
5. Solve an exercise question on practice together with the class.
6. Summarize the lesson and highlight the key points of Pair of Words and Idioms.

Classroom Activities

• Group discussion: students compare common idioms with usage in sentences.
• Board activity: solve a question on meanings in pairs.
• Quick quiz on the key terms of Pair of Words and Idioms.

Assessment Questions

1. Define confusing pairs.
2. Differentiate between common idioms and usage in sentences.
3. Explain with an example: meanings.
4. Write a short note on practice.

Homework

• Read Pair of Words and Idioms from the book and solve the exercise questions.
• Prepare short notes on confusing pairs and common idioms.

Time Allocation

4–6 periods of 40 minutes each