Unit 1: Makharij: Points of Pronunciation

Learning Objectives

• Pronounce Arabic letters from their correct points.

• Distinguish between similar sounding letters.

• Recite letters with proper articulation.

Key Concepts

• Makharij are the points in the mouth where letters are born.

• The throat produces letters like ha and ain.

• The tongue produces most letters.

• Correct makhraj makes recitation beautiful.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Show a simple chart of the mouth and throat.
2. Pronounce each letter; pupils feel where the sound comes from.
3. Contrast pairs: seen vs sheen, daad vs dhal.
4. Pupils repeat letters in chorus.
5. Individual pupils recite; correct gently.

Classroom Activities

• Makhraj game: teacher points to a spot, pupils say the letter.

• Mirror practice: watch your mouth while pronouncing.

Assessment Questions

1. Where is the letter qaf pronounced from?
2. Name two letters from the throat.
3. What is the difference between seen and sheen?
4. Pronounce the letter ain correctly.

Homework

• Practise the throat letters five times each at home.

DM

Unit 2: Noorani Qaida Revision: Joining Letters

Learning Objectives

• Revise all single letters with correct pronunciation.

• Join letters to read simple words.

• Read three-letter words fluently.

Key Concepts

• Revision makes our recitation strong.

• Letters change shape when joined.

• Harkat (vowel marks) tell us the sound.

• Slow correct reading is better than fast wrong reading.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Quick revision of all letters with flashcards.
2. Demonstrate joining on the board.
3. Pupils read joined words from the board.
4. Introduce fatha, kasra, damma with examples.
5. Pupils read short words in pairs.

Classroom Activities

• Word building with letter cards.

• Reading race: who reads five words correctly first.

Assessment Questions

1. Read these joined letters: ba + ta.
2. What sound does fatha give?
3. Join meem, jeem, daal and read.
4. Read any five words from the lesson.

Homework

• Revise the joining lesson twice at home.

Time Allocation

4 periods of 35 minutes each.

DM

Unit 3: Surah Al-Fatiha

Learning Objectives

• Recite Surah Al-Fatiha with correct tajweed.

• Learn the translation of each verse in simple words.

• Understand that it is recited in every prayer.

Key Concepts

• Al-Fatiha is the first surah of the Quran.

• It has seven verses.

• We recite it in every rakah of prayer.

• It teaches us to worship only Allah and ask His help.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Recite the surah slowly; pupils repeat verse by verse.
2. Explain the simple meaning of each verse.
3. Discuss why we recite it in prayer.
4. Pupils memorise one verse at a time.
5. Individual recitation with correction.

Classroom Activities

• Memorisation chain: each pupil recites the next verse.

• Draw and label: where in prayer do we recite Al-Fatiha?

Assessment Questions

1. How many verses are in Surah Al-Fatiha?
2. Recite the first two verses.
3. When do we recite this surah?
4. What do we ask Allah in this surah?
