Unit 1: Makharij: Points of Articulation

Learning Objectives

• Students will be able to define makhraj in simple words.

• Students will be able to identify the five main makhraj areas.

• Students will be able to pronounce letters from their correct makhraj.

Key Concepts

• Makhraj: the point from which a letter is sounded.

• Five areas: throat, tongue, lips, nasal passage, mouth cavity.

• Throat letters: hamza, ha, ain, ha, ghain, kha.

• Practising each letter from its own makhraj.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Begin with a short collective dua and 3 minutes of revision recitation of the previous sabaq.

2. Recite the new portion of Makharij: Points of Articulation slowly with correct tajweed while students listen carefully.

3. Students repeat after the teacher line by line in loud mashq practice of Makharij: Points of Articulation.

4. Correct makharij and tajweed mistakes individually; let 3-4 students recite alone.

5. End with one fluent collective recitation of Makharij: Points of Articulation and assign the portion for home practice.

Classroom Activities

• Makhraj map: students point to the mouth chart while sounding each letter.

• Echo drill: teacher sounds a letter; students echo from the right makhraj.

Assessment Questions

1. What is a makhraj?

2. Name the five main makhraj areas.

3. Sound three letters of the throat correctly.
