Unit 1: Parts of Speech: A Review

Learning Objectives

• Students will be able to name all eight parts of speech.

• Students will be able to identify the part of speech of words in sentences.

• Students will be able to use each part of speech correctly.

Key Concepts

• Eight parts: noun, pronoun, verb, adjective, adverb, preposition, conjunction, interjection.

• Each part has a job in the sentence.

• Identifying by function, not just by word.

• Common confusions: adjective vs adverb.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Begin with a 5-minute warm-up: ask 2-3 oral questions revising the previous lesson and linking it to Parts of Speech: A Review.

2. Present the key ideas of Parts of Speech: A Review on the board with one clear example or a labelled diagram.

3. Explain each point slowly in simple words, asking a short check-question after every point.

4. Do guided practice: solve 3-4 examples of Parts of Speech: A Review together, inviting students to complete steps on the board.

5. Close with a 5-minute oral recap in which students state one new thing they learned about Parts of Speech: A Review.

Classroom Activities

• Part hunt: students find one example of each part in the reader lesson.

• Label race: teams label underlined words with parts of speech.

Assessment Questions

1. Name all eight parts of speech.

2. Identify the part of speech: quickly, and, wow.

3. Use an interjection in a sentence.

Homework
