Unit 1: Simple Past Tense: Talking About Yesterday

Learning Objectives

• Students will understand that the simple past tense talks about finished actions.

• Students will form the past tense of regular verbs by adding -ed.

• Students will memorise the past forms of ten common irregular verbs.

• Students will write five correct sentences about what they did yesterday.

Key Concepts

• The simple past tense is used for actions that started and finished in the past, often with time words like yesterday, last night or last week.

• Regular verbs form the past by adding -ed: play becomes played, watch becomes watched.

• Irregular verbs change their spelling: go becomes went, eat becomes ate, see becomes saw.

• Negative past sentences use did not + the base verb: I did not go to school.

Teaching Methodology (Step by Step)

1. Warm-up: ask students what they did yesterday morning. Write two of their answers on the board in present tense, then fix them into past tense together.

2. Explain the rule for regular verbs: add -ed. Practise with play, clean, wash and help on the board.

3. Introduce irregular verbs with a chant: go-went, eat-ate, see-saw, come-came, run-ran.

4. Show the negative pattern: I played becomes I did not play. Drill with three examples.

5. Pair work: students interview their partner with What did you do last Sunday? and write the answers in past tense.

6. Quick board game: teacher says a base verb, the class shouts the past form.

Classroom Activities

• Yesterday diary: each student writes five sentences about their own yesterday using past tense verbs.

• Verb cards: students pick a verb card and make one positive and one negative past sentence with it.

• Class survey: find three classmates who watched TV last night and write their names in full past-tense sentences.

Assessment Questions

1. Write the past tense of: walk, study, buy, drink, teach.

2. Fill in the blank: She ___ (go) to the bazaar yesterday.

3. Make this negative: They played cricket in the evening.

4. Write two sentences about what you did last Friday.
